U. S. Will Use Every Means To Avoid War, Says Marshall

AIM PEACE, BUT WILL NOT BE INTIMIDATED

Secretary of State Makes Policy Toward Russia Clear in Interview.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 21—Secretary of State Marshall said today the United States will do everything possible in the Berlin crisis "to reach an acceptable solution and to avoid the tragedy of war for the world."

At a news conference Marshall was told that there is presently a widespread fear of war in the world over the Berlin crisis between Soviet Russia and the western powers. He was asked to express his views on the situation.

In a statement which he later authorized for direct quotation, Marshall said:

"I can only say at this time that our position, I think, is well understood.

"We will not be coerced or intimidated in any way in our procedures under the rights and responsibilities that we have in Berlin and generally in Germany.

"At the same time we will proceed to invoke every possible resource of negotiation and diplomatic procedures to reach an acceptable solution and to avoid the tragedy of war for the world.

"But I repeat again we are not going to be coerced."

Gen. Clay Due Today

Scheduled to reach Washington today are Gen. Lucius D Clay, the American occupation commander; Ambassador Robert Murphy, Clay's top-ranking political adviser and a representative of Lt Gen Curtis E Lemay chief of the U S air force in Europe.

Their talks appear likely to be a full review not only of the problem of supplying Berlin by air from the western zones of Germany but of the exact military situation in Europe as well.

At the moment, ranking officials here are still hopeful that the Berlin crisis can be settled before it reaches the point of open fighting.

They do not however disguise their concern that it might lead to war.

Want Blame Fixed

Their determination is that if there is to be shooting the blame must rest upon Russia and not upon the Western Powers.

As one informant put it "If the Russians want a war at this time they can get it, but they will have to bring it about themselves."

The only major weakness which authorities here see in the current position of the western powers results from the collapse of the Schuman government in France. However, there is strong hope that when a new French government is organized it will pursue the same foreign policy which the Schuman administration had followed—a policy of full cooperation with the United States and Britain.

One of the dangers which top Washington officials hope to avoid as the developments of the next few weeks unfold is a growth of hysteria in the west over the possibility of an open conflict with Russia.

These authorities declare that the United States must reject two extremes of action—appeasement on the one hand and excessive belligerence on the other.

Both President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall have repeatedly called in the past for the American people to keep cool.

TRUMAN SETS CONGRESS TALK

Will Deliver Message Personally at Special Session Next Tuesday.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 21—The White House said today that President Truman will deliver personally to congress next Tuesday his appeal for anti-inflation legislation and other measures.

He will address a joint session of the two houses at 11 a. m.

The time for his appearance Tuesday was decided upon after telephone conversation with both Republican congressional leaders and leaders of the Democratic minority.

Congress will convene Monday in answer to Mr Truman's call.

Gov Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican presidential nominee, is reported favoring a brief GOP lawmaking program, and a quick end to the session. His friends say he feels that GOP leaders, after hearing Mr. Truman's message, should be able to agree on any brief outline of measures that can be passed without long delay.

Presidential Secretary Charles G Ross said the President is now drafting an anti-inflation bill dealing with rising prices. Ross declined to give any details of that measure.

He said the President will talk with Gen. Lucius D Clay, U.S.

KILLER, 16, DOOMED TO DIE IN CHAIR

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 21—The Ohio supreme court today upheld the first degree murder conviction of Donald J Frohner, 16, of Youngstown, and set the date for his execution in the electric chair for Aug. 20.

Frohner had been convicted by a three-judge court in Youngstown for the slaying of William C Speth, 52, of Ashtabula, in January 1947. Frohner's companion, Arthur Chapman, was sentenced to life imprisonment.

The conviction was affirmed by the court of appeals at Youngstown.

In appealing to the supreme court, the youth's counsel claimed that Frohner had not been fully informed when he waived a jury trial and that the death penalty was too harsh.

The supreme court affirmed the appellate court by a six to one decision. Judge William L. Hart dissented.

Frohner and Chapman were eleventh grade students at South High school in Youngstown. They were indicted for the first degree murder of Speth on state route 62 near Youngstown while attempting to steal his automobile.

6 Indicted Communist Leaders Freed on Bail

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 21—Bail of $5,000 each was posted today for six top Communist leaders under indictment on charges of advocating the violent overthrow of the U. S. government.

The six, headed by Communist Party Chairman William Z Foster, were arrested last night shortly after a federal grand jury indicted 12 of the party's high command.

The $30,000 bail for the six was posted in U S treasury bonds by Robert W. Dunn, treasurer of the civil rights congress, when they appeared before Federal Judge Vincent L. Leibell.

Freed on bail besides Foster were Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist party; John Williamson, national labor secretary; Jacob Stachel, chairman of the party's department of agitation, publication and education, New York City councilman Benjamin J Davis, chairman of the party's legislative committee and Henry Winston, organizational secretary.

A seventh Carl Winters, chairman of the Michigan state council of the party, was seized in Detroit last night. The other five are being sought.

The arrests, one of the sharpest blows yet struck against organized Communism in this country, brought an immediate, strongly-worded protest from national headquarters of the party.

Calls "Frame-up"

It described the indictments as a "monstrous frame-up" and said the arrests were part of a plan by President Truman to embarrass the New Party of Henry A. Wallace.

Foster and the others indicted are specifically accused of "conspiring to teach and advocate the overthrow of the United States government by force and violence."

The seven under arrest were arraigned last night on the charges and all pleaded innocent.

Of those arrested here, five were taken into custody at Communist national headquarters in lower Manhattan. The sixth, councilman Davis, was arrested at his Harlem home.

All those indicted by the grand jury, which had been investigating for about a year, were identified by federal officials as members of the Communist party's national board. Davis and Winston are Negroes.

The five being sought were identified as:

Irving Potash, manager of the CIO Furriers Joint Council of New York City. John Gates, editor since July, 1947, of the Daily Worker, official organ of the U S Communist party. Robert G Thompson, chairman of the New York state Communist party. Gilbert Green, of Chicago, Ill., district chairman for the Communist party at Chicago, and Gus Hall, of Cleveland, O., chairman of the Communist party in that state.

Ohioan Gus Hall Reported "On Vacation"

By The United Press

CLEVELAND, July 21 — The federal bureau of investigation field office here reported today that Gus Hall, one of 12 Communist leaders indicted by a federal grand jury is still at large.

D K. Brown, agent in charge, revealed only that the FBI is "looking for him based on the warrant issued in New York." Hall is chairman of the Ohio Communist party with headquarters here, and a member of the party's national board. Neighbors said that Hall left on a vacation trip last Saturday.

Communist headquarters here said they did not know where Hall was but added that they did not expect him back until August.

A former CIO Steelworkers' organizer, Hall was indicted at Warren, O., in 1936 as a member of a terrorist dynamite gang which operated in the Little Steel strike there. He pleaded guilty and was fined $500.

Hall was active in the Communist movement in Youngstown, and in 1935 he ran for councilman on the party ticket in that steel center.

John Williamson, another top-run Communist, indicted in New York, was a former Ohio Communist secretary, and Carl Winter one of the 12 leaders now chairmen of the Michigan Communist party, was educational director of the party here in the mid 1930's. He ran for mayor of Cleveland on the Red ticket in 1937.

SESSION SET FOR THURSDAY

May Be Delay on Sales Tax Cut Proposal, Governor Says.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 21—Gov. Thomas J Herbert said today the special session of the legislature will convene as scheduled tomorrow but there may be a delay in consideration of a proposal to reduce the state sales tax.

The governor admitted that a snarl had been encountered in drafting a measure to eliminate the first one per cent sales tax bracket.

Measures have been drawn up, however, for enactment of two other proposals in the governor's three-point special legislative session program. They call for increasing old age pensions and aid to the blind and appropriating additional funds for the welfare department.

The governor said he was not committed on a proposal to amend the election code to permit Henry A Wallace's third party on the November election ballot. He indicated that special session plans would not have to await a decision by the Ohio supreme court in the suits to get Wallace's party on the ballot.

The governor reported there was some sentiment among legislators in favor of amending the election code in event of an adverse court ruling against Wallace supporters, the sentiment, he added had not crystallized.

Will Not Initiate It

If the legislature itself initiates a proposal to permit the Wallace group on the ballot, the governor said he would be willing to extend the special session call. He declared that he himself would not initiate it. In event the administration is unable immediately to draft a satisfactory bill to amend the sales tax law, the legislature is expected to consider other legislation and then recess until a proper measure has been drawn.

Previously, a possibility was seen that the special session might be postponed because of the hitch in drafting the sales tax amendment and the lack of a decision from the supreme court in the Wallace cases.

There was a possibility, however, the court may announce its decision before the legislature convenes tomorrow.

Sales Tax Chief Problem

The hitch on the method of reducing the sales tax appeared to be the most likely reason for a postponement. George V. Sheridan, executive director of the Ohio Association of Retail Merchants, said today no effective solution has yet been worked out to handle changes in the assessment and enforcement features of the sales tax law to conform to the proposed one cent reduction in the tax. Sheridan is spokesman for groups of vendors conferred with the governor on the proposed tax reduction.

All them vendors, Sheridan said, favor the reduction but are fearful that their rights will not be properly preserved in changes that would be necessary in the enforcement provisions of the law.

Plan Relay Request

For this reason, he said, his group probably would ask for a delay of two weeks in consideration of the sales tax reduction

INTEREST IN WAR BASES SHOWN BY U.S.

Ask England, France What Territory Available in Event of War.

By International News Service

PARIS, July 21—Authoritative sources disclosed today that U. S. officials informally have raised with France and Britain the question of what military and naval bases in these countries could be placed at American disposal in event of sudden war.

This inquiry was the subject of French cabinet consideration before the recent fall of Premier Robert Schuman's government.

It also was believed discussed by French Foreign Minister Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Bevin during the recent five-power Western European conference at the Hague.

Interested in Air Bases

The French army general staff now has the matter under consideration.

According to International News service informants, the American military command is interested primarily in what air and naval bases could be made available quickly in addition to the three British fields already placed at the disposal of 60 B-29 Superfortresses which arrived last week.

These sources added that the inquiry appears to be merely a precautionary measure prompted by uncertainty over outcome of the Berlin crisis.

Reports also are current in French parliamentary circles that Washington informally inquired as to whether the French and British governments are prepared to order mobilization in the event fighting developed in Berlin.

May Have Caused Downfall

American officials also are said to have asked whether the French and British are willing to state publicly their preparedness to take such a step as a restraining influence upon Russia.

There are strong indications that these factors had an important bearing on the fall of the Schuman government. Many deputies feel that a broader cabinet should be formed, enjoying a greater majority to facilitate handling of such vital decisions.

French Socialists went to strengthen the center parties in the government while backers of Gen. Charles DeGaulle think the critical international situation warrants his return to power.

President Vincent Auriol, however, is determined to try and find a solution to the crisis through establishment of a new center government.

ANDRE MARIE MAY FORM GOVERNMENT

By The Associated Press

PARIS, July 21 — Andre Marie, a radical Socialist, announced today he had been asked to form a new French government.

Marie, 51, was minister of justice in Premier Robert Schuman's cabinet which resigned Monday in defeat, opposing a $40,000,000 cut in the defense bill.

Marie is a moderate conservative and his emergence marked a swing to the right. He still is suffering effects of starvation in the German Buchenwald concentration camp.

Immediately after talking with President Vincent Auriol, he went to the ministry of justice to consult political leaders.

He must secure a parliamentary majority to obtain the office. It was Socialist defections from the coalition of Popular Republican movement, radical Socialists (Conservatives) and Socialists which toppled the Schuman government.

One popular Republican group was hoping the drama by Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, but the majority opinion among observers was that he did not have a chance.

Bidault's acceptance of the American-British plan for Western Germany almost caused the collapse of Premier Robert Schuman's government a month ago. The Schuman cabinet fell Monday night because of a dispute over the army budget.

39 Soap Box Racers Set for Derby Tonight

Thirty-nine entries will go to the post when Marion's second annual soap box derby gets underway at 7 p. m. tonight.

Police, city and derby officials are rushing last minute details today to handle the crowd expected to jam both sides of the race course tonight on South Main street hill between Church and Columbia streets.

Official inspection of the cars was to be held at the race course at 1 p. m. From 4 to 6:30 p. m. time trials for all entrants were scheduled.

The derby will be run rain or shine. In case of rain a slower speed will probably be achieved but the organizers put any normal rain showers will not postpone the city derby event, George Schmidt, derby publicity director said today.

Prizes will be offered for the fastest track time, outstanding car, class A and class B final winners, and for winners of individual heats, with trophies for the final winners in each class.

The soapbox derby is sponsored by the Lions club and radio station WMRN and is under the direction of Dr. H. R. FIRST POLIO DEATH REPORTED IN COUNTY

Russell D. Dunton, 23, Dies in Columbus Hospital.

Death claimed its first polio victim of the year in Marion county early today when Russell D. Dunton, 23, father of a year-old daughter, died in Children's hospital in Columbus. The Uncapher avenue resident had been ill since July 16. Death was at 5:30 a. m.

He was one of eight polio cases in Marion and the county recorded to date by the city and county health departments, and was one of two victims of the disease in the same family. A young sister, Sandra Lee Dunton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dunton of Marion, is in Children's hospital suffering from a lighter form of the disease. Her condition was reported "good" today. The parents live at 370 Uncapher avenue. Three other Marion victims of the disease and three in the county are receiving treatment in hospitals, according to the reports from the health office.

Russell D. Dunton was born Nov 28, 1924, in Marion, a son of William E. and Beatrice Dixon Dunton, natives of Carrington. He was a veteran of World War II, having served overseas in the air corps, and was an employe of the Marion Power Shovel Co. He and his wife and daughter were making their home at the Uncapher avenue address of his parents.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Donna Louise Southwood Dunton, formerly of Upper Sandusky, the daughter, Shirley Dixon Dunton, 14 months, the parents, the father who is in the Columbus hospital, and two other sons, Richard and Lee Allen Dunton, both at home; a brother, Robert Dunton of Kenton, and Miss Shirley Dunton at home.

The body was brought to the Schaffner-Sommer funeral home on East Center street. Private graveside services will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Friday in Fort Glen Memorial Park.

TRIO KIDNAPED FROM HOME AT REFORMATORY

Bodies of Prison Farm Head, Wife and Daughter Found in Field.

By The Associated Press

MANSFIELD, O., July 21 — Sheriff Frank E. Robinson reported this afternoon that the head of the Mansfield reformatory's prison farm, his wife and 20-year-old daughter had been found slain following their mysterious disappearance from their home early today.

John E. Riebel, 56, his wife and their daughter Phyllis were kidnaped, the sheriff said, from their home outside the reformatory walls some time after midnight.

The state highway patrol reported the bodies were found in a cornfield about four miles east of Mansfield, near state route 42 which runs from Mansfield to Ashland.

Found Near County Line

The highway patrol said the bodies were found in the vicinity of the Richland Recreation Center near the Ashland county line.

The sheriff's office said the highway patrol helped immediate details as to how the trio had been slain. In Columbus, State Welfare Director Charles Sherrard said he was informed the trio had been shot to death.

Previously, Robinson and his deputies, and the state highway patrol, said they were considering a theory the missing trio were in the hands of two former reformatory inmates. They two former convictions now are being sought for the July 9 slaying of Earl C. Ambrose, a Columbus tavern owner.

Guns Stolen

Robinson said "we are considering as a definite possibility that the Ambrose killers kidnaped the Riebel family and armed themselves with guns taken from the house."

State highway patrol officials said they, too, had considered the "Ambrose angle," but as yet had nothing on which to "hang their hats" except the fact the two fugitives were known to be driving a grey sedan, and such a car was seen beside the Riebel home shortly after midnight.

The men identified by witnesses as the Ambrose killers, Robert Ehrl Daniels, 26, and James Coulter West, 32, were last seen Monday night when they sought a hotel room at New Lexington, O.

"A fellow with a bad mind, like one of these Ambrose killers, is just the kind of fellow who would think up a kidnaping stunt like this," the Columbus highway patrol office spokesman said. "Our men are investigating every angle, but the 'Ambrose angle' is certainly a definite possibility."

Taken in State Cruiser

Sheriff Robinson said the Riebels probably had been kidnaped in their nightclothes, since their other clothing, including underwear, was found on the bedroom floor.

State Welfare Director Charles Sherrard said two reports of the state bureau of criminal investigation in Mansfield from Columbus, accompanied by the welfare department's public safety inspector, a truck equipped with the latest police detection equipment.

Sheriff Robinson reported that the Riebel home at the prison farm had been ransacked, all doors left open, locked purses of all three occupants deposited on a dining room table, but that the automobiles of the Riebel and daughter were in the garage.

George Altenbrei, assistant superintendent of the reformatory guards, went to the Riebel home after a farm employe, L. Harris, had found the doors open when he stopped to pick up a load of tubes.

See "Light-Colored" Car

The sheriff said neighbors told him a "light-colored" car had been seen at the Riebel home last night. Robinson also said bureau and bullet dressers in the house were open, and evidently had been ransacked, and that although no members of the Riebel family smoked in the house, cigarets had been found, ground into the rugs both up and downstairs.

On the dining room table were

STATE GRANGE MASTER TALKS

Fichter Present When Grand Prairie Observes Silver Anniversary.

Charter members were honored and with other members who have been affiliated with the organization for a quarter of a century, were presented pins, at the silver anniversary meeting of Grand Prairie grange, last night at the Grand Prairie school. Guests included Joseph W. Fichter, state Grange master and Mrs. Fichter, superintendent of juvenile Granges of Ohio, of Oxford.

The anniversary program was held on the school lawn and later there was a social hour with refreshments including home-made ice cream.

Paul Dasher, master, presided for the program which opened with music by the Grand Prairie school band directed by Miss Ruth Dreyer.

Reads First Minutes

Miss Maude Hill of Mansfield, who served as secretary when the grange was organized 25 years ago, read the minutes of the first meeting. Mrs. R. T. Thew gave a history of the grange and the roll call of charter members. Responding last night were Roland Leeper, Mrs. Fred Gilbert, Miss Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burtsfield and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Lucas. The charter members and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dean and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Thew, who have been members 25 years, were presented certificates from the national grange and 25-year membership pins from the grange. The presentation was made by Mr. Dasher, master.

The following past masters were presented by Mrs. Thew: Elmer A. Williams, Forest Londenslager, Foster Davidson, Robert Hinamon, R. T. Thew, George Peterson, Wallace Linn, Orie McGlone and Elmer Dean.

Mr. Fichter Speaks

Mr. Fichter's talk dealt with grange activities and Mrs. Fichter talked informally on the work of the juvenile granges throughout the state. Mr. Fichter will go to New York this week where he will be the guest of Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

Music on the program included vocal solos by Miss Clara Williams and Miss Jean Lyon, a vocal duet, "Beautiful Grange," by Mrs. Harold Ludwig and Miss Helen Lyon. Miss Emily Pride gave a reading and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Lucas and daughter Marjorie, presented a playlet.

Mrs. Paul Lill was in charge of the refreshments assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Linn and Miss Louise Hinamon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fichter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Williams for dinner preceding the program.

70 Attend Family Picnic of Jaycees

More than 70 persons were present last night at Garfield park for the annual picnic held by the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce for members and their families.

Highlight of the outing was a softball game between the Jaycees and Co C, the Marion contingent of the Ohio National Guard. The soldiers trounced the Junior Chamber, admittedly a bit off form what with members of their families looking on. Final score was not revealed.

Don Flach, Junior Chamber president, announced the organization would sponsor its second annual donkey baseball game at Crystal Lake park.

Committee in charge of the picnic comprised LaRoy Miller, Russell and Lawrence Wenger, George Schwab, Dick Lister, Don Flach, Mrs. Lawrence Wenger and Mrs. Miller.

Negligence Suit Filed For Crestline Woman

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, July 21—Damages in the amount of $20,000 are asked in a court action filed in Crawford county common pleas court today naming as defendant the Detroit-Pittsburgh Motor Freight company. Plaintiff in the action is Lillian Wagner, administratrix of the estate of Clarabelle Corbin, 20-year-old Crestline woman who received fatal injuries in a truck-car collision on route 30-N July 21, 1946.

The suit charges negligence.

The accident proved fatal for William F. King, Crestline, driver of the car in which Miss Corbin was riding.

ROAD PROJECT CONTRACTS LET

Several Improvements Listed in Marion and Surrounding Counties.

Contracts for 37 road projects including one in Marion county and several others in adjoining counties have been awarded following approval of the state highway department board of awards, it was announced today by Earl L. Beeb, state highway director.

The S. G. & W. Construction company of Waldo was awarded a $42,389.25 contract for resurfacing 28.17 miles on state routes 529, 521 and 38 in Marion, Delaware and Union counties. The company is now engaged on the LaRue-DeCamp road construction project started last year and expected to be completed this summer. Completion date for the tri-county project just awarded is set for Oct. 1 of this year.

The U. S. Construction Co. of Upper Sandusky, which has just completed a Marion county project on the Hillman-Ford road received two more contracts, one in Hardin county and another in Wyandot county. The former calls for 10.7 miles of bituminous treatment on state route 53 at a cost of $35,882.50. The Wyandot county contract awarded at $88,-189.61 calls for bituminous construction on 20.41 miles on state routes 103, 131 53 and 294 in Wyandot county. Completion date for both projects is Oct. 1 1948.

Wade Sowers of Galion, was awarded the contract for .351 miles of paving on state route 19 in Crawford county. Contract was for $88,801.88 and calls for completion August 31, 1948.

The Bucyrus Materials Co., of Bucyrus, was awarded a $21,719 project calling for 10.76 miles of resurfacing on state routes 93 96 181, 95 and 314 in Crawford Huron and Richland counties.

A Union county project calling for approximately 1.8 miles of bituminous treatment on state routes 47, 347 and 739 was awarded Ralph H. Fulk of Hebron, at $29,490.08.

The Union Asphalt Materials Co. of Ostrander was awarded the $74,812 contract for 2.842 miles of paving on U. S. route 42 in Delaware county. Contract is to be completed by Nov. 30 1948.

REV. E. E. NIETZ

Rev. Nietz To Speak At Oakland Church

Rev. E. E. Nietz of Columbus superintendent for the southern district of the Ohio conference Evangelical United Brethren church will speak at the special service of Oakland Evangelical UB church here tonight. This is the midweek service in the week's celebration of church debt liquidation.

Conference superintendent eight years Rev. Nietz has been for several years treasurer of the conference board of trustees and has handled building funds paid in monthly by the Oakland congregation in paying off the local church debt.

Beginning Aug. 1 the building fund will be displaced by the Kingdom Forward fund of gifts for missions and for local improvements. Rev. H. V. Falor pastor stated. As his sermon topic tonight, Rev. Nietz will use "We Are Indebted." Time of the service will be 7:30.

27 HARDIN CO. MEN AID FARM NEIGHBOR

Special to The Star

KENTON, July 21 — Twenty-seven northern Hardin county farmers descended upon the 20-acre hayfield of Mrs. Edgar Hull Saturday and in spite of an afternoon rainfall completed the haying job before nightfall.

Edgar Hull 38-year-old Blanchard township farmer succumbed June 16 to a sudden heart attack leaving his wife and two children.

It was a grand sight to Mrs. Hull Saturday morning when the long caravan of farm machinery, manned by her neighbors, began arriving at her farm. The women helped in the house and served a "threshers dinner" to the workers.

The person engineering the day's activities was James Miller, who resides across the road from the Hull farm on the McElree pike.

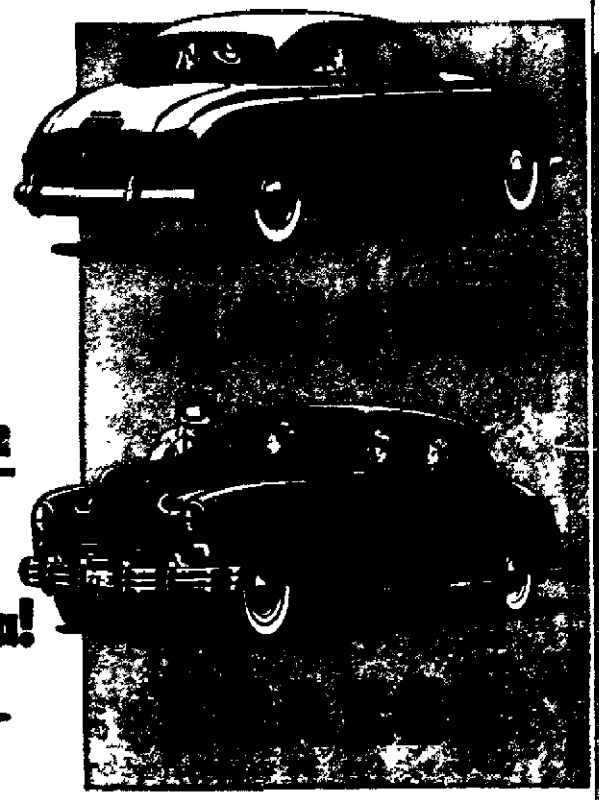
Driver's License Test Hours Are Arranged

Beginning Friday, driver's license examinations will be given at the state highway garage on West Fairground street, Corporal T. B. Morgan reported today. Test will not be given at the substation at 700 East Center street, he said.

Hours for the tests are Friday, 9 a. m. to 12 noon and 1 p. m. to 5 p. m., Saturday, 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

We're building ONE EVERY 45 SECONDS but that's not fast enough for America!



Service wherever you go

In just two years we've built and sold more fine cars than any other new manufacturer in automobile history.

Why? Because America fell in love with the KAISER and the FRAZER on sight. Folks are streaming into Kaiser-Frazer showrooms and learning from present owners how dependable these two great cars are. They're learning—from people who drive them—how economically they are built . . . how economical they are . . . how much joy there is in owning one.

THESE ARE THE MOST-COPIED CARS IN AMERICA, road-proved by 200,000 owners in two billion miles of driving.

Because plenty of Americans insist on comfort, convenience, style and value, traditional leaders had to "move over"—as Kaiser-Frazer became the fourth largest manufacturer of motor cars in the world in two short years.

Why wait? Enjoy your new car this summer. You'll get fair treatment and highest trade-in allowances.

RED CROSS WATER CLASS ENROLLS 295

Course at Crystal Lake Now in Fourth Week.

The Red Cross Water Safety program at Crystal Lake is now in its fourth week with an enrollment of 295 for the various swimming and life-saving classes. The students, including children, parents and grandparents, have been placed in classes according to their swimming knowledge and ability.

One large group of students belong to the exclusive "Can-Do" club which holds its meetings daily in the coolest spot in Marion. To belong to the club one must have graduated from the "Anti-Can't" or beginners club and have a genuine interest in self improvement. The classes in the "Can Do" club are conducted on the Intermediate swimming level and many new skills are learned.

The first phase of learning perhaps could be called the major phase of the course. The step is the full comprehension of the major leg strokes—the scissors, the flutter and the breast stroke kicks, and then in natural progression the mastery of the arm strokes follows.

The second phase of learning at the Intermediate level is concerned with coordination of the arm and leg strokes into two styles of swimming, the elementary back stroke and the stroke on the front or side. The next phase deals with simple turning in closed courses so that swimming may be continuous.

Floating, treading water, and underwater swimming comprise the fourth phase of instruction, enabling the student's endurance in the water to be of longer duration. The fifth phase provides an easy, graceful means of entering the water by the mastery of the plain front dive in good form.

Holding a place of extreme importance in the course for the intermediate is the last phase of learning. In this step the student learns simple rescue skills for his personal safety as well as being a help to others, and he receives instruction and practice in artificial respiration.

After the completion of this course the intermediate is issued a card signifying that he has successfully completed all requirements and is now ready to take the Swimmers course of instruction.

Classes will continue through August under the sponsorship of the Marion County Chapter of the American Red Cross. Classes will be held Monday through Friday at 10 a. m., 1, 2:30, 4 and 6:30 p. m. Charles J. Smith is chairman of the water safety committee and assisting as instructors are Miss Patricia Wiant, Miss Josephine Judy, Miss Helen Beal and Paul Porter, assisted by junior and senior lifesavers.

IN NEW PEACE MOVE. Taking off from La Guardia Field, New York, to renew peace negotiations between Arabs and Jews, Count Folke Bernadotte, U. N. mediator, appeared optimistic. He said he hoped to have an accord to present to the UN assembly in September.

Age Limit Boosted For Reserve Officers

The department of the army announced today through Colonel Henry F. Grimm, acting executive of the Ohio Military District, the lifting of former age restrictions for reserve officers desiring active duty, Capt. John B. Weaver, unit instructor, Army Reserve Corps, reports.

Effective at once the age limit for reservists, otherwise qualified, will be 50 years in the grades of captain, lieutenant and warrant officer. The limit for field grade officers, which include major, lieutenant colonel and colonel, will be 60.

Members of the reserve corps who are interested may secure further information by contacting the representatives of the Organized Reserve Corps in this area, at the office of the Unit Instructor, located at 186 South Main street.

"Gentleman Jack" Jackson was the first and only amateur to hold the world championship boxing title, in 1795.

Deadline Is Near To Renew Insurance

Henry Mosley of the local Veterans Administration office said today that according to a release from the branch office in Columbus, World War II veterans have only until July 31 to renew lapsed GI insurance under the liberal reinstatement provisions now in effect and they are urged to reinstate their insurance in advance of the deadline, as the final day is on Saturday, a non-working day for VA offices.

Under the present liberal policy, a veteran may reinstate lapsed insurance without necessarily taking a physical examination. He generally needs only to certify that his health is as good as it was on the date of lapse and pay two monthly premiums to reinstate term insurance, or all premiums in arrears, with interest, on permanent types of insurance.

In a recent release from William L. Martin, manager of the 26 northern Ohio counties of which Marion is one, it is stated that the summer vacation period caused a drop from 63,943 to 43,607 in the number of World War II veterans in training.

Of this number 22,444 veterans are enrolled in educational institutions, 8,649 are taking job training, 2,983 disabled veterans are in school, 4,374 disabled veterans training-on-the-job, and 2,797 are enrolled in Institutional - Farm Training under the provisions of Public 16 and Public Law 346.

Other items of interest from a summary of the month's VA activities are the payment of $3,394,791 in subsistence to veterans, $1,998,831 to institutions for tuition and supplies, and $3,686,174 in compensation and pensions to veterans and their beneficiaries.

LOCAL WEEKLY CLASS MEETS

Mrs. Bertha Custer was hostess for a picnic meeting of the Lake Avery class of Greenwood Evangelical United Brethren church at her home on North Main street Thursday night. Mrs. Hilda Murray was associate hostess. The meeting was opened with group singing. Scripture was by Mrs. Robert Chappell, and prayers were by Miss Gertrude Cox of Dayton and Mrs. Estella Parker of East Sparta, guests. Readings were by Mrs. Connie Heath and Mrs. Parker, and LaVerne Smith and Sandra Custer sang. Closing prayer was by Mrs. Jim Shipley. Miss Edyth Lewis of East Sparta was a guest also. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. W. E. Tenley on East George street.

The date palm grows to a height of 60 to 100 feet.

No Nourishment in Propaganda

THE Russian offer of food for all of Berlin, including the blockaded section of the city, apparently is being taken by Germans at its face value. In the meantime, the United States and Great Britain will do their best to fly in the supplies the Russian blockade was intended to keep out.

The Soviet Union produces only one thing in abundance—propaganda. It has tried for almost a full generation to substitute propaganda for things it has been unable to produce in sufficient quantities to satisfy the needs of its people.

It has exported propaganda in prodigious quantities. It has used propaganda to conceal its real intentions at home and to mislead people it hoped to dominate outside the borders of Russia. Never before in history has a government relied so heavily on misrepresentation of the facts to gain influence inside and outside its own country.

It may be argued that propaganda under the Communist dictatorship of Russia has been a defense mechanism brought into play by Russia's inability to overcome centuries of backwardness in a single generation. But that does not make a palatable substitute for the real thing. Propaganda cannot feed Berlin. It has not fed Germans in the Russian zone of Germany, as Germans in the western zones well know.

France Seeks a New Premier

THE latest political shakeup in France is another reshifting of an uneasy governing alliance.

With no party holding a national assembly majority, French cabinets must be patched together of elements that adhere for political expediency. Sometimes they come apart over comparatively trivial matters, as in the current case when the assembly withheld $17,000,000 of the Schuman cabinet's military budget request.

The assembly's controlling force has been a coalition of Socialists, radical Socialists and popular Republicans, middle-of-the-road parties with aims much alike. When they act as a unit they hold the Communists and the De Gaullists in check. When they disagree, the leaders of the three parties must be canvassed for men who can reconcile the differences. In the past men like Blum, Herriot and Schuman have been able to settle these disagreements.

As long as the parties of the center can resolve their differences, France will be governed by a "third force"—a moderate element controlling the extremists of left and right. If that force dissipates itself in wrangling, France will be in danger of authoritarian seizure. Then there would be only one "force" and those opposing it would be crushed.

All's Well That Ends Well

IF PRESIDENT TRUMAN has no other reason for calling a special session of congress than partisan politics, he undoubtedly will get what he deserves—a giant dose of partisan politics. One harassed Chief Executive against the combined resources of all the politicians in both houses of congress leaves slight doubt of the outcome.

When it is considered further that Mr. Truman himself is so badly confused about his relationship with congress that he forgets he has been given no mandate in an election though congress was given a fresh mandate in the congressional election of 1946, his political strategy seems certain to boomerang. Even Senator Barkley, his running mate and the Democrats' No. 1 man in the senate, opposed a special session.

But there is another side to a special session. Relations with Russia are at a breaking point over the Berlin blockade. A special session of congress at this time, no matter what reason may be given, is assurance of maximum authority in Washington for whatever decisions may be called for in the next few weeks.

Senator Tobey of New Hampshire suggests this may have been Mr. Truman's real reason for calling a special session. The evidence points the other way, but perhaps any reason is secondary. The effect is what counts. The Russians, who had planned for congress to be in adjournment at this time, are confronted with a turn of events they didn't expect. The U. S. congress, instead of being on a holiday, is going to be on the job again next week.

One Railroad's Plight

THE Kansas City Southern railway's annual statement shows that 1947 taxes for the benefit of retired and unemployed railroaders exceeded the year's dividends by 30 per cent. It also shows the company's federal and state taxes for 1947 were 10 per cent more than the dividends paid from 1938 to 1947 inclusive.

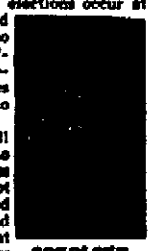
The railroad's statement concludes: "The record over the past 15 years has been quite discouraging. Today many of the larger investors look with distrust upon railroad securities." It prescribes "a more realistic attitude toward the situation in the railroad industry on the part of the American people..."

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Politics as Played in This Election Year

THE President's call to congress to reassemble on July 26 is of no advantage to the nation. Under our system of government, every member of the house of representatives and one-third of the senate are to come before their constituencies this year to account for their conduct and to ask for re-election. The Constitution so provides. As ours is a representative republic, it is part of our way of life that elections occur at fixed times and that those who run for public office should present themselves to the people who elect them.



SOKOLSKY

No issue will be presented to the 80th congress which could not better be handled by the 81st. And the reason is that the new congress will have heard from the people; it will come to Washington fresh from the cities, towns and villages. It will know what the constituents want. It will not be so subject to pressures of Washington, to the lobbyists, columnists and commentators.

This does not interest Harry Truman. With the spitefulness of a small boy after his daddy has punished him, he sticks out his tongue at congress. The advantage to him is that he will send flamboyant and impractical messages to congress and then will make some off-the-cuff speeches based on his messages. Curiously, the President does not realize that his popularity has receded after each of his messages. He does not realize that he was respected, even by his political opponents, before he began to talk so much. Everybody felt that he meant well, and that he ought to have a chance.

His Course Is Clear

Yet the President has become convinced that his pronouncements are invaluable to the country and to his political career and he will bombard the congress with messages and imprecations and will then say to the country that he told congress what to do and congress did not do it. He does not recognize that under the Constitution the congress is not a subordinate agency to the president. Of course, he will not say that the Democratic members of congress also do not follow his lead; otherwise, it would have been impossible to pass so many measures over his veto.

All this is small politics, tiresome and unpleasant, and will avail nothing. Also, it will not harm the United States, for we are like drunkards and idiots who somehow survive, in spite of everything, by the grace of God.

It is the counsel of despair in the foreign field that needs constant watching. There the harm can be irretrievable. There are enough bad spots in our international relations that anybody can start a war. The Berlin situation alone holds more causes for war than Sarajevo, which started World War I. Certainly, anyone can start a general war over Berlin. The Palestine situation is made for a general war, and in the history of man, several of the bigger wars developed in just that area of the earth's surface.

Places Blame on Marshall

The China situation is perfect for a general war. Chiang Kai-shek is in real peril, largely because of the politics pursued by Harry Truman and George Marshall. It is possible to start a war with Soviet Russia in China, Manchuria and Korea at a moment's notice. For that, only George Marshall is responsible, as he disarmed Chiang's troops while Soviet Russia was arming the Chinese Communists with excellent arms captured from the Japanese.

So, if the same spitefulness evidenced by the unnecessary and impolitic recall of the 80th congress should be applied to our foreign policy, there is no telling what damage can be done. And what makes me more fearful is that the Democratic convention provided beyond doubt that Mr. Truman has rejected sound Democratic leadership and has cast his fortune with such men as David Niles, Leon Henderson, Oscar Ewing and other resuscitated New Dealers who go haywire politically at the drop of a hat. They provoked the split with the Solid South which wiser and more experienced men had handled with wisdom in the resolutions committee. They have wrought havoc in pursuit of their private but irresponsible opinions. Should they advise the President on the handling of our foreign policy—God love and protect America!

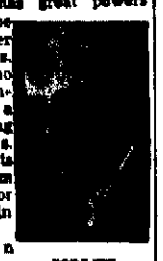
Truman's Special Session

By Raymond Moley

THERE are two ways to look at this mid-summer night's dream session of congress. One is the view of a practical politician—Democrat or Republican—who attempts to assess political values and dangers. The other is that of a detached citizen who cares only for a rational solution of the problems that confront his country.

On the political side, Truman's call is a desperate gamble. The President, despite his cocky demeanor, must know that his chance to win is slim. But as President he has great powers which may be used to further political ends. There is no point in complaining about a President's using such powers. Most Presidents have used them to a greater or lesser degree in the past.



MOLEY

So we can imagine that the President and his advisers thought over the powers at hand in this grave political emergency. He could make non-political trips and let the treasury pick up the checks. But he has already done that, and the device was not very successful. He could call out the Army. But that might not be a good way to suppress Dewey or subjugate the South. He could start a war. But as a man who had seen the horrors of war he could hardly do that. Finally, he could call congress in special session and harangue it about the state of the union. That, apparently, appealed to him and so he has tried it.

Some Possibilities

As he pointed out in his speech of acceptance, there are several things that congress could do, such as pass his civil rights program, enact a housing bill, do something about inflation and attend to several miscellaneous items. All these the President said, no doubt suppressing a smile, could be carried through in 15 days.

Republican political strategy in such a special session might well be to introduce the whole Truman civil rights program. That program is a long one. There would be several complicated and lengthy bills. It is inconceivable that a start could be made on even one of these in 15 days. Even with closure measures in the senate, the South could delay matters for a week or two. If Truman were so disposed, he could, after congress adjourned without enacting a civil rights program, accuse the Republicans of bad faith in advocating civil rights in their platform. That would be pretty flimsy stuff, but some votes could no doubt be changed.

Regarding Inflation

On inflation the administration has a slight advantage. It can, without any effective defense by congress, create inflation in many ways. The fact is that it is creating inflation every day and is blaming congress for it. It is hard to see how congress can, without repudiating its past record, pass the kind of anti-inflation measures that the President has asked for.

On housing, the problem is simple for the Republicans. Taft has a very good housing bill all ready. It could be passed in 48 hours if the two houses were favorable.

The battle in congress during this short session would therefore be inconclusive. Both sides would go on in September with their oratory. Both would claim credit for housing legislation. Both would deny blame for the failure of civil rights. Both would be blamed for inflation. The South would still be off the reservation. The North would be drifting toward the Republican party. And the taxpayers would be paying for the session.

All this involves a consideration of political strategy alone. But how does it look to the detached citizen? He sees the whole thing as a political trick. He will, of course, be glad to see a housing bill passed. He will be confused about inflation. But if he is a thoughtful man, he will be profoundly distressed to see as delicate and complicated a question as civil rights thrown once more into an angry and futile legislative brawl. That can help no one but fanatics, fools and those who live on racial and religious prejudice.

Weigh Hand Wave

By The Associated Press

RAHWAY, N. J.—The puff of air from a single wave of the hand can be weighed on a new kind of scales developed here at the Merck Institute for Therapeutic Research. The scales are used to weight potent new drugs, and to weigh the energy spent by animals under the influence of medicinal drugs.

They can be used in the ordinary way, but take 10 seconds to come to rest. This weighing time is cut to a fraction of a second by a new device. A beam of light catches the first downward motion of the loaded tray. The light is changed by a photocell into electricity and a calculator calculates the weight.

In testing medicines on animals, in the past it has been the rule to record the activity that can be picked up from movement of a cage hung on springs. The new scales will substitute for the springs and weigh each movement of an animal cage. They are expected to weigh the amount of energy in each move.

Diplomacy Backing

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Thursday, July 21, 1938.

Acting Secretary J. Monroe Johnson of the commerce department expressed the belief that industry had turned the recovery corner. He based his view on a six-point rise in steel mill operations, a five per cent gain in machine tool orders and increases in automobile assemblies, consumption of cotton and production of power and coal.

"Passing of 100 Years," a pageant depicting scenes from the history of Green Camp, was the center of attention for the estimated crowd of 9,000 persons attending the second evening program of the village's four-day centennial observance.

An audience estimated at 2,000 heard the scriptural sermon on "The New Birth," given by Rev. John E. Zoller of Detroit, on the second day's program of the annual evangelistic-Bible conference sponsored by the Young People's Fellowship club of Central Ohio, at the Chautauqua pavilion.

Miss Genevieve Craig of Longview, Wash., who had been visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Smyth of Courtland terrace, left for New York and on the following Saturday was to sail for a three months' tour of Europe.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fout of Copeland avenue.

More than 80 Marion Kiwanians, their wives and friends journied to Wolf Creek Grange hall southeast of Kenton for a dinner meeting with 40 Kenton business people. A chicken dinner was served, country style. Gilmore Hiett, president of the Kiwanis club and advertising manager of The Star, was master of ceremonies.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, July 21, 1928

Although the August primaries still were three weeks away Marion county politicians were picking the winners of both parties. For the Republican nomination for governor James Begg was given the edge in the county over Myers Y. Cooper and Attorney General Edward C. Turner. Begg's state manager was Hoke Donithen, local attorney and Republican leader. Democrats predicted that Martin L. Davey, the Kent tree surgeon and member of congress, would poll a good vote here. Democrats also predicted that the two party senatorial nominations, one resulting from the death of Frank B. Willis, would go to George White of Marietta and Cyrus Locher of Cleveland. White was favored to win the short term nomination over his opponent Charles V. Truax of Bucyrus because of opposition to the latter arising out of his corn borer campaign as state director of agriculture. With two of the four Eighth congressional candidates from Marion, Republican voters in the county were expected to favor either Grant E. Mouser Jr. or George B. Knapp. Brooks Fletcher, the Democratic candidate, was unopposed.

Internal revenue officials in Washington predicted the national income for the year would reach $80,000,000,000.

Before leaving Washington for his home in Palo Alto, Calif., Herbert Hoover, Republican candidate for president, ordered the budget for the coming campaign be kept within $3,000,000.

Elmer E. Hultz, Marion county World war veteran, died at the veteran's hospital in Chillicothe following an operation for appendicitis. The body was to be brought to the home of a sister, Mrs. Clarence Humes of South Prospect street.

Final plans were made for homecoming services to mark the completion of improvements to the Prospect Street M. E. church.

Two deaths from drowning were checked against the heat wave. The victims were Floyd Bowman, 18, of Marion, and Lee Olmstead, 17, of near Marengo.

The "Frozen" Female Face

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

THERE must be something that can be done about the great American female face.

The map of Europe is always changing. Why can't women change their maps, too?

They're always promising you they will. They get up and say requisibly:

"Excuse me, I want to go and change my face."

But when they bring it back, there it is again—the same old deadpan they took out with them. Is that a change? Or is it just a case of the man being short-changed?

HAL BOYLE

Let me preach this plea for a change in the great American female face by saying I am no crabbed misogynist, suffering from a lifelong case of frustrated puppy love.

I like women. Some of my wife's best friends are women. I have hit the sawdust trail for the gentler sex many times, admitting they are kinder, and more intelligent than men. And more dependable in the pinches, too.

Explanation Sought

But why—nay, thrice why—do they cloak their shining personalities, and their wondrous hidden ways, under the mask of the great American female face?

This is the face they wear in public—chin tilted, eyes glazed, mouth frosted in faint disdain, nose held high as if it were being pulled from behind by an invisible fishhook.

The native American male has become so accustomed to meeting this face on the streets and byways of his land that he unconsciously has come to assume this is the natural expression for a woman to wear. It might be for a Caribbean lady Zombie, but for a nice American woman—never.

This great, glacial, expressionless female face sometimes appalls visiting men from other countries. I asked one wise European what he thought of the women here.

Cautious Answer

"Will what I say cause any further cuts in the European recovery program funds?" he asked. Assured it wouldn't, he said:

"Frankly, they puzzle me. They try extremely hard to dress differently and individually—but they also seem to go to any length to make all their faces look alike. I have difficulty telling them apart except by their clothes."

The gentleman hit his head exactly on the nail, so to speak. Two women who would die rather than be caught wearing the same style hat don't mind at all going through life wearing the same face.

The great American female face can't be blamed on universal imitation of Hollywood's impersonal glamor. It goes deeper than mere identical patterns of rouge and lipstick. Some critics believe it comes from watching store mannequins. This theory holds that a woman who buys a dress she saw on a window dummy unconsciously feels she has to don the wooden expression the dummy wore.

Some mornings my women put on this look because they aren't sure of themselves. Others say they do it to avoid wrinkles. I don't know the reason. But I do know it is killing chivalry. Any man knows what I mean who has graciously yielded his seat and been stabbed in return, as by an icicle, by the clammy gaze of the great American female face, guiltless of gratitude.

The girls assemble this frozen face the day they turn from Bobby sox to nylons, and dissemble it only in old age, when they let their natural warm humanity show through again.

Maybe that's why children and old ladies are so popular.

Phony Efficiency

By TRUMAN TWILL

Dining rooms are being skipped in new houses, as they should have been for the last generation—though for a worthier reason. Modern architects are skipping them to beat inflated building costs.

Having already eliminated the attic, basement, front porch, back porch, entrance hall, and just about everything else that used to go with a house, they've decreed the dining room should be eliminated too.

It was the last sacrifice left that could be made without asking the dear, dumb public to get along without kitchens, bathrooms and bedrooms. That will come later, perhaps when the price of a livable house finally reaches $50,000 and no one is left with that kind of money.

There will be only one way out then. The construction industry will have to give the public some kind of shelter; that is its job. It will have to perform this service at a price the public can afford, which will mean a box with a built-in heating system for chilly weather, a drinking foundation in one corner and cross-ventilation—something a little fancier than a dog-house though constructed on the same lines.

For hi-falutin occupants, the boxes will be shoved up against one another and called efficiency apartments, just as they have been for many years in the largest cities where the standard of living always has been lowest. The significant thing is that the same low standard of living now is being foisted on people who dreamed of something better. That brings this place back to the subject of dining rooms.

Many a house of the vintage years of building in this country contains a dining room that scarcely is used at all and should be converted into part of the living room, or made into a separate living room, to give members of the family a chance to enjoy more space, the same boon of gracious living among civilized people. The original talk about eliminating the dining room was aimed at converting the dining room space to some better purpose, but inflation has distorted the idea into having neither a dining room nor an equivalent amount of space for any other purpose.

The way things are drifting in this era of confusion, it won't be long until human beings will be living in one-room shacks with fancy names and prices attached—and kidding themselves that it's more efficient that way. There's nothing anyone can do about it, except be aware of what's happening and to deny stoutly that it represents an improvement in living standards. Exactly the opposite is true.

Living standards in the United States are declining with terrible rapidity as millions of Americans already know and millions more are slated to find out one of these days when they quit being cushioned between efficiency and poverty.

CRAWFORD YOUTHS WIN HONORS AT FFA

BUCYRUS, July 21—Honors in three different classes of competition went to Crawford county youths at the recent convention of the Future Farmers of America held at Columbus.

Highest honor went to the Sulphur Springs judging team which won third place in the state contest of judging branding pigs. Members of the team were Harold Strayer, Donald Long and John Boudinot.

In the poultry class a Sulphur Springs team placed third in the egg grading division. In the group were Kenneth Reffet, Walter Schimpf and Gilbert Boudinot.

Two dairy cattle team placed 14th and the general livestock team from the same place ranked 18th. Mt. Zion general livestock team was 20th and the dairy cattle team 40th.

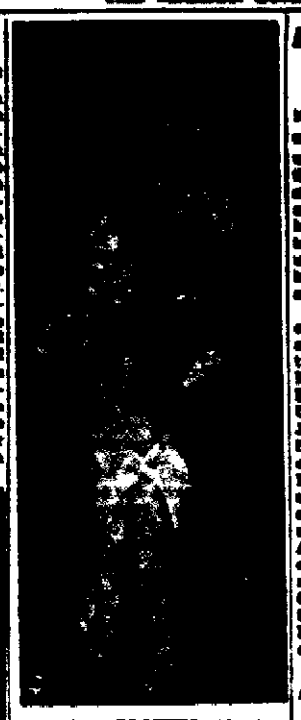
Five Crawford county youths who received state farmer degrees at the state convention of the Future Farmers of America will go to Marion Saturday for the F.F.A. luncheon and radio broadcast.

To take part from the county will be Elden Geiger, Charles Martin and George Lisle Young, all of Sulphur Springs; James Fritz of Mt. Zion and Lewis Young of Holmes Liberty. Vocational-agriculture teacher of the respective schools will also attend.

Many soft-shelled eggs of reptiles increase in size after being laid, because of the stretching of the membranous shell by the growing embryo.

DAV Chapter Plans Drive for Members

Plans were furthered for a membership drive to be held in the near future by Marion Chapter No. 32, Disabled American Veterans, at a meeting of the chapter Tuesday night at the Armory. The drive will be headed by Leonard Aldon, senior vice commander. All disabled veterans in Marion county are urged to attend the meetings of the chapter and become a member. Grover White, commander, presided for the meeting. Plans are underway for a picnic and an old fashioned beer dinner to be held in the near future. Delegates and alternates to the DAV convention to be held Aug. 6-8 in Cleveland were named. Future meetings of the Marion chapter will be held at 115½ South Main street.



RESCUE BROTHER. Heroine of a dramatic rescue, Patsy May Cummins, 4, smiles happily as she clings to her 15-month-old brother, Jimmy, whose life she saved. When their trailer-home in Antioch, Ill., caught fire, Patsy forced open the door, grabbed Jimmy from his crib and carried him to safety. For some reason—maybe diaper trouble — Jim doesn't seem too happy.

Mary, Martha Circle Of LaRue Church Meets

The Mary and Martha Circle of the LaRue Methodist church held its annual picnic and guest night party Tuesday night, July 13, at the home of Miss Ruth Ford at LaRue. Serving as associate hostesses were Mrs. Robert Weist, Mrs. Ruth Dietrick and Mrs. Doris Hughes.

Driver Escapes Injury As Auto Overturns

One automobile accident, involving cars driven by Marian Fairchild and John L. Fisher, both of near Marion, was reported by the Marion state highway patrol sub-station yesterday.

Neither driver was injured when their cars collided at 11 a.m. yesterday on route 530 about two and six-tenths miles southeast of here. Both cars were considerably damaged. Mr. Fisher escaped injury when his car overturned, knocking out the windows, and again righting itself, the patrol reported.

New York City's subways and elevated lines have 851 stations.

Members of Pratt 4H Club Bucyrus, sponsored by the Prospect Presbyterian church, and their parents held a picnic recently at Garfield park. Thirty Club and 35 parents were present.

Chet Fuller was in charge of the picnic and games were played under the direction of Bob Gabbard, assistant Commander. A highlight of the activities was a tug-of-war between the boys and their dads, which was won by the dads. Merlin and others were shown by Bob Stough, Harmon Freshour, Colemanah, in spelling plans to hold the conference of the pack in Hocking State park in August.

MISS BARBARA JANE ALSPACH, daughter of Dr and Mrs O C Alspach of 510 South Vine street, became the bride of Thomas J. Boyd, son of Mrs. W. C. Boyd of 311 South Main street and the late Mr. Boyd, in a ceremony read Sunday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church.

Decorations in the church were in green and white. Lighted tapers in seven branch candelabra were in the choir loft and a row of candles extended the full length of the railing hung with garlands of greenery. Tall baskets filled with white carnations and gladioli, in a setting of palms and greenery were the altar decorations

Preceding the ceremony read at 4 30 o'clock by Rev Howard L. Olewiler, pastor, Mrs. Karl W. Schell played a program of wedding music and Miss Betty Lou Stoune of Decatur, Ill., a college classmate of the bride, sang. The organ numbers included "Romance," MacDowell, "Indian Love Call," Friml, "Through the Years," Youmans, "Thine Alone," Herbert, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," Herbert, "Oh, Promise Me," DeKoven and prelude to the third act of "Lohengrin," Wagner. The vocal numbers were "I Love Thee," Grieg and "Because," D'Hardelot. During the ceremony Schubert's "Ave Maria" was played.

Dr. Alspach gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with a tight bodice, had a yoke of sheer marquisette outlined with a bertha of imported Chantilly lace and the long sleeves ended in points over the hands. The bouffant skirt cascaded over an old-fashioned hoop skirt of rows of matching lace ruffles and extended into a full cathedral train An open work Juliet cap held her fingertip veil of imported silk English illusion and her orchid centered bridal bouquet was of gladioli blossoms, white daisies and stephanotis She wore the bridegroom's gift, a strand of pearls.

Miss Patricia Smoot was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Ellis H. Veatch of Washington, D C., and Mrs Maurice V. Cornell, sisters of the bride, Mrs. Richard Lemnitzer of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Mrs. Lawrence Daly of Bowling Green Jill Howser was the flower girl

The attendants' gowns were in orchid and jonquil yellow taffeta Styled on lines similar to the bride's gown, the basque bodices were fashioned with off-the-shoulder necklines and sheer marquisette yokes outlined with soft shirred berthas and the bouffant skirts were worn over hoop skirts of tiered ruffles. Their bonnets, matching the color of the gowns, were tied with large marquisette bows and they carried colonial bouquets. Miss Smoot, Mrs. Veatch and Mrs. Cornell were in orchid and Mrs. Lemnitzer and Mrs. Daly wore gowns in jonquil yellow The maid of honor's bouquet held yellow roses and orchid daisies. Mrs Veatch and Mrs. Cornell carried yellow roses and white daises and Mrs. Lemnitzer and Mrs. Daly carried Lady Bountiful roses and yellow daisies. The little flower girl, in a jonquil yellow dress identical with those of the attendants, carried a basket of Lady Bountiful roses and white daisies.

Serving as best man for his brother was Philip Boyd of Mt Gilead and ushers were Haver Alspach of New York City, brother of the bride, and Maurice V. Cornell, Ellis H. Veatch of Washington, D. C., Charles Bruner of Anderson, Ind., Dr. Carl Sheehe and Clyde Hosey.

The reception was held at the

MRS. THOMAS J. BOYD

Marion Country club Mrs Alspach was costumed in a rose crepe dress with a draped bodice and skirt with which she wore a small hat of imported roses Her corsage was a purple hybrid orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of aqua crepe. The bodice and sleeves were embroidered with silver bugle beads and the skirt was draped in a side cascade. She wore a matching hat and a yellow orchid corsage.

Assisting were Mrs. C. O. Brown, Mrs Henry S. Kraner, Mrs. O G Stephenson, Mrs Robert Kraner Mrs. George A Howser, Mrs Rodney Cox, Miss Mary Barnaut, Miss Janis Brabson, Miss Betty Short and Miss Janet Stein

When the couple left on a motor trip to the Great Lakes and Canada, the bride chose for traveling a sharkskin suit in a toast shade, small white panama hat and brown and white shoes and purse Upon their return they will be at home at 223 Gurley avenue

The bride was graduated from Harding High school in 1946 and last June was graduated from Christian College for Women at Columbia, Mo. Mr. Boyd, a graduate of Harding High school in 1943, and Kentucky Military Institute and Bowling Green university. He served in the U. S Navy in the South Pacific area for three years during World War II and is associated with the sales personnal at the Ford garage.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs F O. Hite, Mrs. George Haver, Mr and Mrs. Lowell Ralston, Mr. and Mrs H. M. Leitnaker, Miss Ellen Leitnaker and Miss Margaret Brumfield of Columbus, Haver E Alspach of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis H. Veatch of Washington, D C, Mr and Mrs Philip Boyd, Mr. and Mrs Robert Corwin, Mr and Mrs James Gallagher, Miss Jeannette Dye and Russell Dye of Mt. Gilead, Mr and Mrs. F. M. Donaldson of Tiffin, Miss Jo Rhodes and James Hendricks of Flemingsburg, Ky., Miss Sue Roof of Fort Thomas, Ky., Miss Betty Lou Stoune of Decatur, Ill., Mrs. O. O Butler, Mrs. Gordon Butler and Danny Butler of Mt. Victory, Mr. and Mrs Frank Ramge and Miss Betty Ramge of Kenton, Mr. and Mrs E. E. Fly of Deshler, O., Charles Bruner of Anderson, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Gast of Hollywood, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. LaRoy Bowers of Cardington.

The rehearsal party was held in the presidential suite at Hotel Harding with Mr. and Mrs. Ellis H Veatch, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice V. Cornell and Haver E Alspach as hosts. Present with the bridal party were Dr. and Mrs. Alspach, Mrs. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Howser, Mr and Mrs. F. O. Hite, Rev. Howard L. Olewiler, Mrs. Karl W. Schell, Miss Mabel Wheatley, Mrs. Carl A. Sheehe, Richard Lemnitzer and Lawrence Daly. At this time Miss Alspach and her fiance presented gifts to their attendants.

The custom of open church will be observed for the wedding of Miss Rebe Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C Freeman of 821 Bellefontaine avenue and Elmer N Noe, which will take place Saturday afternoon, July 31, in Oakland Evangelical United Brethren church. The ceremony will be read at 2 30 o'clock. The bridegroom is the son of Mr and Mrs. Oscar Noe of 177 Olney avenue.

Miss Freeman will have as her attendants Mrs. Jean Noe and Miss Alfreda Freeman, and the junior bridesmaid will be her niece, Miss Janice Freeman. The candles will be lighted by her sisters, Mrs. Mary Persinger and Mrs. Jeanne Peiler.

Mr Noe will have as his best man his twin brother, Elmo Noe. Following the ceremony there will be a reception in the church parish house after which the couple will leave on a trip through the south.

The ancient Egyptian princes used blood baths to regain their youthful strength.

Weddings

Announcement is being made here of the marriage of a Canton resident and a former Marion man at Galion last week In a double ring ceremony Saturday evening at 8, Mrs Mary Marks daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Henry Aventino of Canton, became the bride of Harold B Metzger, son of Mr and Mrs J J. Partlow of 242 Chestnut street The ceremony was read by Rev Norman Somerville, Methodist minister, in his Galion home Nuptial selections were by Mrs Somerville who played the traditional wedding numbers and music throughout the ceremony

For her wedding, the bride chose a street length dress of aqua blue with which she combined white accessories. Her bridal flowers were a corsage of white carnations The couple's attendants were the bridegroom's stepfather and mother, Mr and Mrs. Partlow The latter was attired in a brown faille taffeta suit and brown accessories, and she wore a gardenia corsage.

The bridegroom served four years in the navy and was overseas 17 months. He is now employed at the Ford plant in Canton, and he and his bride will make their home in Canton for the present.

Guests at the wedding included Claude W Metzger, a brother of the bridegroom, and Mrs Metzger and their family, of Marion

Report Ohio Is Far From Polio Epidemic

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 21—There is no polio epidemic in Ohio, and the state is a long way from it, state health department officials said yesterday.

There are 181 reported cases throughout the state, officials said. They added there would have to be one for every 10,000 Ohioans before the disease reached epidemic proportions.

While last year's 1,498 cases hit an all-time polio peak for Ohio, the number of cases recorded at this time then was only 45.

Simple rules of hygiene are the best known preventatives for polio, State Health Director John D. Porterfield said.

"No one knows conclusively what causes the disease" he said. "There have been various suggestions—water and flies, for example." He added that children's colds should be promptly treated and garbage should be removed.

By The Associated Press

SALINA, Kas July 21—A heavy supply of army equipment reportedly was being readied today for shipment from Camp Phillips to England

The information came from a source considered reliable The source who declined use of his name, said gun carriages command cars ambulances and other vehicles were loaded on 240 flat cars

In addition box cars reportedly were being loaded with such supplies as uniforms and blankets.

Army officials in Washington said the reported shipment appeared too large to be a normal consignment of replacement equipment for occupation forces in Europe

The source here said he understood the movement was being directed by authorities at the Smoky Hill air force base a B-29 bomber field An air force spokesman in Washington however, said the material was not air force equipment

3 Claim Victory In Montana Primaries

By The Associated Press

HELENA, Mont., July 21 — Three candidates, including Democratic Senator James E. Murray, claimed victory today as slow unofficial returns continued to trickle in from Montana's primary election.

Murray, Montana's senior U. S. senator, built up a 36,834 to 8,826-vote lead over Dr Harry J. MacGregor Great Falls, in unofficial tabulations from 536 of 1,142 precincts. Murray who campaigned on his record, and the Democratic party's platform, is seeking his fourth term.

Democratic gubernatorial candidate John W Bonner of Helena and Governor Sam C Ford, a Republican, also claimed victories in yesterday's primary

British To Announce Bread Rationing End

The report came less than 24 hours after Minister of Agriculture Tom Williams informed the house of commons that if we are lucky with the weather Britain's farm crops this year will reach the peak level of 1943-44

Cow at 26 Is Mother Of Calf Number 26

By The United Press

RIPLEY, Me.—A 26-year-old cow (equivalent to a human being 90 years old) has given birth to her 26th calf.

The cow's owner, Miss Lila Vrooman, thinks the animal is the oldest in Maine and possibly one of the oldest in the nation.

Several weeks ago the cow was giving 10 quarts of milk a day. Mrs Vrooman said, and until about a year ago the aged heifer produced 15 quarts a day.

Officials at the Ringling Animal Hospital in Sarasota say the average life of a cow is 15 years.

the purses of Niebel and his wife and daughter with no money in them Niebel's eye glasses also were there

First indication that the family was missing came at 6 30 a m when Niebel failed to appear at guard meeting Supt Arthur Glattke of the reformatory is in Cleveland, attending a meeting of state prison officials

Saw Automobile

Lowell J Snyder who lives across the street from the Niebel home reported he noticed an automobile in a side road between 1 30 and 2 00 a m After about 15 minutes the car backed in the Niebel driveway and remained about 15 minutes or more he said

Snyder said he noticed that Niebel's porch light went on and then off He said Niebel usually turned the light on before the family went to bed and kept the light on all night

No one got out of the car as far as he could see Snyder said He added he saw no one leave the house

Investigating officers reported three firearms — a shotgun a 22 caliber rifle and a 38 caliber revolver were missing from the Niebel residence

Reformatory officials said that Niebel during 20 years of service had never been involved in any difficulty He was considered a strict disciplinarian in dealing with inmates at the prison farm

Sheriff Robinson acting on the assumption the Niebels had been kidnaped, appealed to the FBI for assistance He also asked the aid of the state highway patrol

"It looks to me and to the rest of the boys here," the sheriff said, "as if it were a kidnaping We can't find anything else The automobiles are in the garage and it doesn't look as if anything has been taken It looks now to us definitely a kidnaping

Officials began a study of a list of former inmates at the reformatory

"We can't find anything but the possibility that the Nibels were taken away by some one with a grudge although Niebel doesn't seem to have had any trouble with inmates or to have had enemies outside the institution Sheriff Robinson said

Niebel's brother Ray is an officer in charge of the Grafton honor camp farm The brother was not notified immediately of the family's disappearance because he is seriously ill

The bodies were nude They were found at 2 15 p m by Robert Zoller 18, of Chillicothe O a counsellor at a nearby Lutheran camp, and Rev Herbert Veller of Stony Ridge

STEEL PRICE INQUIRY SET

House Committee Chairman Says His Group Will Want "All the Facts."

By The United Press

WASHINGTON July 21 Chairman Jesse P Wolcott said today his house banking committee will inquire into the reasons for the new steel price increase

The Michigan Republican said the $146,000 000-a-year boost in prices by U S steel came at an "unfortunate time A average increase of $9.34 a ton in steel prices was announced yesterday by U S steel which traditionally sets the price pattern for the entire industry

Rep Wolcott said in a telephone interview from Chicago that his committee will want to get all the facts' about the steel price boost before acting on any legislation designed to control inflation

When congress meets in extra session Monday President Truman plans to renew his request for broad price control and rationing authority White House sources reported that Mr Truman will ask for immediate price controls on meat and some other basic foods

Congress thus far has balked at all administration efforts to write into law a stiff new program to combat higher prices Pressure on congress will be greater than ever at the new session however and the steel price increase may be a factor in determining the type of legislation that is finally approved

It is unfortunate that United States Steel felt it necessary to raise prices at this time' Rep Wolcott said There is some question whether the corporation had to do it'

He said that when spokesmen for the steel industry appeared before the joint congressional economic committee during the last session they made out a pretty good case for price increases that had been ordered at that time

But the situation may be different now Rep Wolcott added

We'll have to take a look at the whole picture he said

U.S. Steel Price Boosts Announced

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK July 21 United States Steel Corporation today raised its prices an average of $9 34 a ton

The advance wiped out a cut of $1 25 a ton put into effect in April by U S Steel subsidiaries

Benjamin F Fairless president of the corporation said in a statement yesterday the April price reduction was part of an unsuccessful effort by these subsidiaries to aid in retarding further increases in the cost of living '

The April reduction was linked with a refusal to raise wages and salaries But last Friday U S steel raised the wages of 170 000 production workers in the CIO's Steel Workers union by 9 per cent and forecast a compensating price boost

'Steel prices have failed to keep pace with the very substantial increases in employment costs on transportation charges and in the cost of coal scrap and other purchased goods and services, creating a financial situation where these subsidiaries have no alternative other than to advance their steel prices " Fairless said

"The new prices " he added "embrace a restoration of the average price reduction of about $1 35 a ton made by (U S Steel) subsidaries last April and in addition include an average increase of approximately $8 09 a ton or about 9 6 per cent in the base prices for major steel products then quoted by these subsidiaries The amount of the price increase varies for different products"

Recreation Board Favors Survey

The Marion city recreation commission voted unanimously in favor of a survey of local recreational facilities by the National Recreation Association at their meeting Monday night at city hall

The cost of such a survey is estimated at $1,500 by commission members and no funds exist at this time to cover this expense The present recreation season has six weeks yet to run Commission members believe the suggested survey should be completed before the next season "If this is not done no accurate appraisal of what is wrong and what is right with present recreational facilities can be determined" commission member Floyd Young said today "Until we can have the local situation surveyed for its shortcomings by experts we will be whistling in the dark when we make future plans" Young concluded.

DEMANDS BAR AGAINST REDS

Virginia Senator Asks Action To Stop Entry of Communist Agents.

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, July 21—Sen [illegible] Revercomb, (R) of West [illegible] demanded today that the administration stop Communist agents from slipping into this country through the United Nations.

Sen. Revercomb is chairman of a senate judiciary subcommittee which has been investigating immigration problems. State department officials have told the group that hundreds of foreign agents are using the United Nations headquarters in New York to sneak into the United States.

Sen. Revercomb said the United States shouldn't issue diplomatic or visitors visas to these agents, even if they are assigned to the UN. He said that "our authorities are supposed to keep Communists out."

If the laws on the statute books aren't sufficient for this purpose, he said, the weakness may serve to be remedied by enactment of the Mundt-Nixon Communist-Control bill. That measure passed the house, but was shelved by a senate committee.

William Marlow, chief of the state department's diplomatic visa section, described all UN personnel from nations behind the "Iron Curtain" as dangerous to U. S. national security. But he said the United States is powerless to do anything about it.

Mr. Marlow told Sen. Revercomb's subcommittee that UN diplomats, clerical help and "correspondents" — even those from Soviet-dominated nations — are protected by international law and congressional statutes. He said that neither the FBI nor any other agency has the personnel to keep an eye on them.

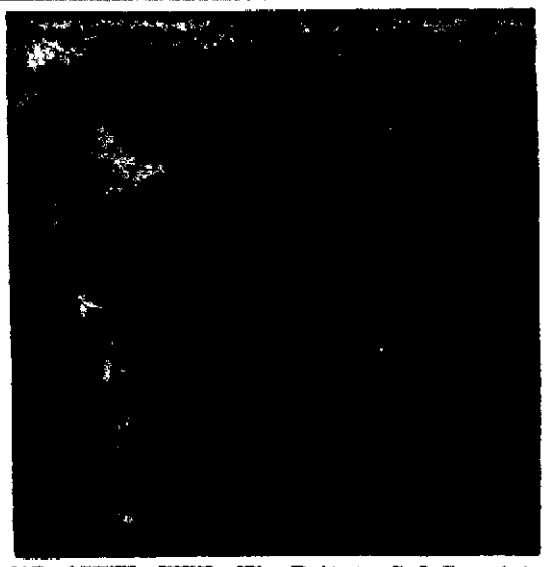
"The problem is becoming more acute all the time," he said.

Disagrees with Officials

Sen. Revercomb, now in West Virginia, has been advised of the progress of the inquiry. He disagrees with state department officials that there is nothing they can do about the situation.

He pointed out that present law prevent the issuance of visas to any persons working against the security of the United States.

In New York assistant UN Secretary General Ben Cohen of Hile said flatly that the UN has no authority over diplomats entering the United States as members of delegation staffs. Other officials suggested that if the U. S. has any complaints about UN staff members, it should take them up directly with Secretary General Trygve Lie of Norway.



SPY AGENTS USING UN LOOPHOLES. Subversive foreign agents are "swarming" into the United States through United Nations loopholes, two U. S. department officials tell a senate immigration sub-committee in Washington, D. C. Shown looking over a transcript of their testimony are R. Clyde Larkin, (left) chief of state department visa security division, and Robert C. Alexander, chief of the visa division.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

There was a sense of urgency in Olga's manner which vaguely alarmed me.

"What's happened?" I faltered.

"Nothing that I know of," she said. "I don't think there's the slightest reason for your being alarmed. Richard is on the telephone. I told him that we expected you back at any second and he decided that instead of having the operator switch the call with the risk of your being in the hall he would hold on here and talk to you when you returned. But he appears quite anxious to talk to you, although from the sound of his voice he has no other anxiety."

An unexpected telephone call always does something to me but I put down my tremors and walked to the telephone. Then my husband's voice as he began to speak reassured me.

"Hi there," he said. "I hear you're cavorting around the corridors."

"Nary a cavort," I told him, playing up. Mr. Adams escorted me to make sure I didn't overstep any bounds. I simply did a sartorial errand for Olga."

"Remind me to look up that word," he teased. "Perhaps I can find it in a cross word puzzle sometime."

"Olga said you sounded as though you had an urgent message for me." I said with affected primness.

"I have. 'Miss Prunes and Prisms,' he shot back. "But it really is Dad's message not mine. Do you think you can squeeze in three extra people at dinner in the living room tonight?"

"Three?" I echoed, a bit dismayed.

"Yes, three," he said. "Let's see, we are six normally, you and I, Noel and Mary when they don't eat in their own room which I don't think will be advisable tonight. Faith and Katrina. Three more will make nine. You can manage that can't you?"

"Of course," I told him quickly, for I am well used to calls such as this both from my father and from Dicky. "But who are the three guests? Can't you tell me that?"

"One's your father," he said. "Oh, how wonderful!" I exclaimed, thrilled. "And the others?"

Was my "imagination working overtime," as Dicky sometimes accuses or did he hesitate oddly before he answered. Then his reply was so glib, so smoothly phrased that I told myself I must be mistaken.

"They're two young chaps of the you know what who have breezed in with some messages for him. I don't know why he can't take them down to his own place—he didn't explain—but he was positive of one thing, he can't dine with them in a public place. And he wants a long interview with them. I promised him that if you'd feed them I'd turn over my studio to him for his chat. I imagine he's counting on a romp with Faith first. Then after she trots off to bed he'll take his men up to the studio."

"Sorry to let you in for anything like this," he said contritely, and I interrupted him summarily.

"Will you kindly tell me how you're in anyway to blame for this?" I asked. "It's Father's problem and I'm always glad to help him out. By the way did he have any ideas about dinner? There's time to order anything he'd like brought in."

"Why," Dicky said hesitating. "Dad did mention a sea food dinner. He said the young men were excessively fond of sea food and had been where they didn't get many delicacies. Could you get broiled lobsters for the main course?"

"Of course," I said. "But what about dessert?"

"Why I don't know," he answered. "What about fresh strawberry shortcake?"

PAINT FIRMS, MEN, INDICTED

Grand Jury Charges 14 Major Companies, Officials with Price Conspiracy.

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 21 — Firms which make nearly half the nation's paints, varnishes and lacquers, and the men who run them were under indictment today—charged with a conspiracy to fix the prices of their products.

A federal grand jury, acting on complaints of the U. S. government, handed down the indictments in U. S. district court yesterday, naming 14 major paint companies and 20 officials.

These companies, the indictments said, handled more than 45 per cent of the nation's billion dollar yearly paint business.

Attorney General Tom Clark said the cases were a part of the government's anti-trust program aimed at "illegal conspiracies" in the housing fields.

He said commerce department records "indicate that prices in the paint industry rose more rapidly after the removal of OPA ceilings than in any other industry."

The indictments specifically accused the firms of engaging in "a combination and conspiracy to fix, stabilize, maintain and control the prices, discounts, allowances and terms of sale" of their products.

The firms, the indictments said, agreed "to exchange with each other information about prices charged * * * and other factors affecting prices."

In Cleveland, spokesmen for two of the companies under indictment protested there was no basis for the charges.

Adrian D. Joyce, chairman of the board of Glidden Co., said: "There's nothing to it. We never met with any other paint concern to discuss prices and costs. Our prices are very much the same as other firms due to competition."

Luther H. Schroeder, treasurer of Sherwin-Williams Co., declared: "We don't see any basis for it (the charges) whatsoever."

One indictment included these Ohio firms as producers of paints, varnishes, enamels and lacquers: Sherwin-Williams Co., Cleveland; the Glidden Co., Cleveland.

A second indictment included as producer of lacquers, varnishes, enamels and stains for use in the wood furniture industry included Columbus Varnish Co., Columbus. O

Child, 4, Injured In Traffic Accident

Terry Green, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Milton Green, of 344 Chester street, suffered a cut on his right temple when a car driven by his father collided with a truck driven by Walter William Bowers, 44, 390 Chester street, and was thrown into the side of a parked car. The Green child was taken to city hospital where he was given emergency treatment and released. Police investigated the accident at 6:10 p. m. Tuesday in the alley at the rear of 482 Silver street.

Slight damage resulted when cars driven by Reed L. Merwine, 23, of near Galion and W. Lawson Manning, 32, of 285 Merchant avenue, collided at West Center and Union streets near Oak at 8:14 p. m. last night.

A car driven by Otis Lucine Boger, 67, of near Attica was slightly damaged when it collided with the left rear dual wheels of a tractor trailer driven by Gordon L. Turley, 25, of Akron in front of 124 South Main street at 4:05 p. m. yesterday.

Guy Hackney, 33, of near Chatfield was arrested by city police at 1:34 a. m. today on North Main street on a charge of speeding. He posted $25 bond for an appearance in municipal court today to answer the charge.

MBC To "Protect" Radio Contest Money Winner

By The United Press

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 21—Jack Adams, 28-year old telephone company cable splicer, said today he had decided to accept $7,300 he won on a Mutual Broadcasting company show because Mutual promises to 'protect' him from the public.

Adams said Mutual had assigned five extra telephone operators in New York to handle calls from persons wanting the money and his employers agreed to change his Huntington telephone number. Adams said he received as many as 1,200 telegrams in an hour after he turned down the money Saturday because income taxes would take most of the prize.

Piles
Are Never "Mild"
DANGER IN NEGLECT
No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.
Although they may seem a "mild" ailment especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves, instead, they are likely, if neglected to keep increasing in size involving more and more of the rectal area.
Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as indigestion, biliousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling and general nervous irritability
Removal of piles is the only permanent relief written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.
Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free

Columbus Lady Loses 24 Lbs. and 8 Inches at Waistline
"I am 39 years of age," writes Mrs. C. M. Tolmans, 151 E. Long St., Columbus, Ohio, "and before taking Reducit Concentrate was entirely too fat for my age. I have lost 24 lbs. with this wonderful reducer and my waistline went from 34 to 26. Everyone that knew me when I was heavy can't get over how I look now. I feel that Reducit has made a 100% improvement."
Hundreds of others have obtained similar relief from the social and physical discomfort of being overweight. Reducit is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple. Just go to your druggist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Reducit. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Reducit—no starvation diet—no prescription diet list to buy—no vitamins to torture you against weakness while going hungry for you WON'T be hungry. Don't be switched to another product. Insist on and obtain genuine Reducit.

Principal Events Leading to Berlin Crisis

By International News Service

Following is a chronology of the principal events leading up to the present crisis in Berlin:

Feb. 12, 1945. Yalta agreement announced calling for disarmament of Germany, with Germany and Berlin divided into American, British and Soviet zones. France was invited to take over a fourth zone and participate in the Allied Control Commission to be established in Berlin.

May 8, 1945. Germany surrenders unconditionally to 4-power control council set up with headquarters in Berlin as Germany ceases to exist as a sovereign nation.

July 14, 1945. President Truman writes to Premier Stalin agreeing to withdraw U. S. troops to Western zonal boundaries from Soviet-occupied areas in eastern Germany with implicit understanding that allies will have free access to Berlin by road and rail.

Aug. 2, 1945. Potsdam agreement announced implementing Yalta decisions and forming four power control in Germany and Berlin.

Sept. 6, 1946. James F. Byrnes, then secretary of state, in speech in Stuttgart opposes Soviet claims for $10 billion dollars in reparations from Germany and Soviet methods of taking reparations from current production.

Jan. 1, 1947. Due to failure of quadripartite plans for effective control of Berlin and Germany, U. S. and Great Britain announce bizonal agreement. Two areas are merged economically with German participation and headquarters at Frankfurt.

Feb. 21, 1947. Gen. Lucius D. Clay succeeding Gen. Joseph T. McNarney as U. S. military governor announces that on March 15 the U. S. military control will be shifted to Berlin.

Tiny White Spots on the Nails.

There has always been a good deal of curiosity as to the white spots that sometimes occur on the nails and perhaps for lack of other explanation definite superstitions have grown up about them in some parts of the world. In one locality, for instance, it is believed that the number of spots which can be counted on the nails of an individual indicate the number of years he will live. In others, they are regarded as visible evidence of the lies he has told and, in still others, as that of secret kisses.

Of course none of these things is true. As a rule such spots indicate nothing in particular but in many instances they have a meaning for the physician as an indication of some underlying condition which should receive attention.

One of the most common causes of these white spots would appear to be injury to the nail when the root of the nail is pressed on as is often the case in pressing back the soft tissue behind the nail in manicuring. This pressure and injury may cause the cells to take up an unusual quantity of air which is responsible for the white spots and stripes. This may account for the frequent occurrence of spots on the nails in young girls who are so interested in their nails as ornaments.

White spots on the toe nails are not nearly as frequent as on the finger-nails which again would seem to indicate that injury to the nails during manicuring is the most common cause of the white spots.

Severe Fever

As I have mentioned there are more important causes of these white spots than the nail injuries. They may develop as one of the results of a severe fever. White stripes or coarse ridges on the nails have been observed to develop during severe attacks of typhoid or typhus fever.

Nerve injuries are another cause. They may develop in cases of neuritis produced by an excessive use of alcoholic beverages, or a neuritis caused by arsenic.

In many instances the exact cause of the white spots on the nails cannot be determined. It would appear that there is a certain group of people who suffer from constipation and indigestion acne or pimples and who also have white stripes on the nails.

It is thought that these stripes may develop during the regular monthly periods. It is also noted that the white spots are present in some persons who have excessive sweating. They may occur in those who have a skin disorder known as psoriasis. Eczema also may be accompanied by changes in the nails including the formation of white spots.

Excluding the cases which develop as a result of injury fevers and poisons white spots on the nails of patients may be a symptom that requires investigation since they may indicate a more or less persistent state of ill health.

Questions and Answers

M. C. H.: What causes a purplish color of the lips?

Answer: This might be due to a general cyanosis (that is a blue color of the skin) due to some condition which reduces the oxygen supplied to the tissues for example asthma or a heart disturbance.

The purplish color might be the result of some local disorder, or perhaps a vitamin deficiency.

Chloroform ether and nitrous oxide were the first general anesthetics to be used widely.

Dodgers Defeat Cubs, 13-9, Before 2,100 at Rotary-Kiwanis Benefit

Doders Come Up from Bottom To Second Place in Two Weeks

By The Associated Press

The Brooklyn Dodgers are making the pennant talk of their president, Branch Rickey, and their new manager, Burt Shotton, sound like something more than idle chatter.

In last place a little more than two weeks ago and apparently hopelessly out of the National league pennant race, the revived Dodgers today are right back in the thick of the pennant fight, trailing only the front-running Boston Braves.

Brooklyn has played the best baseball in the league over the past 18 days. During the stretch, the Brooks have won 14 days and lost only three for an .824 percentage.

Their 5-0 victory over the Cubs in Chicago yesterday together with Boston's 9-6 loss to the Reds in Cincinnati advanced the Brooks to within six and a half games of the Braves. They are only four games behind in the important losing side.

Pirates Share Spot

The Pittsburgh Pirates virtually share second place with Brooklyn, but the Dodgers possess a .8094 of a percentage point lead over the Bucs. Brooklyn has won 41 and lost 30 for .5180 while the Pirates have won 42 and lost 39 for .5185.

Rex Barney, the strong-armed righthander, for whom the Dodgers have been waiting since 1943 to find himself, pitched the first shutout of his major league career in blanking the Cubs with seven hits.

The joy of Brooklyn's victory was dampened somewhat by an injury to centerfielder Carl Furillo in batting practice. Furillo's nose was broken when he was hit by a line drive from the bat of Coach Ray Blades. He is expected to be out for about a week.

The Pirates crushed the Philadelphia Phils, 11-2, in a night game in Pittsburgh. The Pirates clinched the game in the eighth with six runs, three of them coming on Ed Fitzgerald's first home run of the season.

Home runs by Johnny Wyrostek, Ted Kluszewski and Danny Litwhiler accounted for six Cincinnati runs and gave the Reds a 9-6 victory over the Braves.

The scheduled game between the Giants and Cardinals in St. Louis was postponed because of rain. The Idlemen ousted the Cards to drop them a three-way tie for second place to fourth.

Essex Gain on Leaders

The oncoming Boston Red Sox gained valuable ground on the three leaders in the American league, picking up a full game on Cleveland, Philadelphia and New York. Joe McCarthy's fourth placers defeated the St. Louis Browns, 8-3, to move within a game of the third place Yankees.

The Yankees bowed to Detroit, 2-1, the same score by which Washington knocked off the first place Indians. The cellar-dwelling Chicago White Sox defeated the runner-up Athletics 5-2. The Indians now enjoy a one game bulge over the A's, lead the Yankees by three and a half games and the Red Sox by four and a half.

Great Horses, Drivers Raced Here in Past

By GEORGE SCOTT

If we could travel back through the years and witness the great moments in the world of harness racing, the Marion county fairgrounds would be one of our stops.

There, as time turns back 20 years, we see the Marion track become the first half-mile oval in the country to don lights.

And over this track, harness horses whose names will never die parade before our eyes. Who hasn't heard of Greyhound, the fastest trotter of all times, and Billy Direct, world's champion harness horse who paced a mile at Lexington, Ky., in 1:55 in 1936 making him king of all harness horses?

Victory Song, world's champion trotting stallion in a race and chosen by 50 sports editors and radio commentators as "Harness Horse of 1947"; May E. Grattan, winner of over $43,000; Her Ladyship, second only to all time record-holder Billy Direct when she paced a mile in 1:56¾ in 1948; Mc I Win, holder of the three-year-old record for a mile run; Little Pat, winner of over $40,000; Chief Counsel; High Noon; and many more greats raced on the Marion track.

Then pacer Grattan Bars circles the track in 2:03¼ to beat the Marion times of all these famous horses and set a record for the Marion track that hasn't been broken yet.

In 1914 while the Germans are pushing back the allies, the present grandstands seating 2,500 are built.

And past these stands drive the men whose names are found in record books and the hearts of harness racing fans. Doc Parshall, Wayne Smart, Henry Thomas, Vic Fleming, Tom Berry, Charles Lacey, Harry Fitzpatrick, and Doc McMillan are a few of the names spoken wherever horsemen meet who have raced at Marion.

In those days the best of the nation raced for purses of $5,000 and better at Marion before going to the Grand Circuit, big leagues of harness racing. Marion was called Little Grand Circuit but its racing, horses, and drivers were just as grand as the big loop itself.

Since the days of the century Marion has been known to horsemen throughout the nation. A few of them can remember that

INDIANS MEET YANKS IN TWO GAMES TODAY

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 21 — The league-leading Cleveland Indians move into Yankee Stadium today for a doubleheader with the world champion New Yorkers which could "make or break" the Tribe's eastern tour.

Steve Gromek and Bob Muncrief were named to oppose Ed Lopat and Frank Hiller of the third-place Yankees in the crucial twin bill, which finds the Indians holding a narrow 5-3 victory margin during their current trip.

The Indians outhit the Washington Nationals 10-7 last night at Griffith Stadium, but left 10 runners stranded as the Nats snapped Cleveland's three-game winning streak with a 3-1 triumph.

Don Black, Ed Klieman and Gene Beardan limited Washington to seven scattered singles and two runs, but relief hurler Sid Hudson nipped a Cleveland rally in the ninth to ice the verdict.

With the Tribe trailing by one run, Jim Hegan singled and moved to third on pinch-hitter Thurman Tucker's double against the right field wall. Dale Mitchell and Larry Doby then went out, killing the rally and keeping the Indians' margin over Philadelphia at one game. Cleveland leads the Yankees by 3½ games.

Mitchell started the scoring in the first inning by stretching his consecutive game hitting streak to 17 with a single. Dale then stole second and tallied Cleveland's only run on a one-bagger by Doby.

Black yielded one run in the bottom half of the first when Gil Coan, the league's leading base stealer, rapped a single, stole second and scored on Ed Stewart's safety. The Nats plated the winning run for starter Rae Scarborough in the second when Mickey Vernon walked, pilfered second and crossed the plate on Eddie Yost's one-baser.

CINCINNATI BLASTS BOSTON BRAVES, 9-6

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, July 21—Cincinnati's Reds found the range with three homers yesterday and took a 9-6 victory from the leading Boston Braves.

Four errors were chalked against the Reds in five innings before Danny Litwhiler, Johnny Wyrostek and big Ted Kluszewski got their homers.

Two of the Red homers came in the bottom of the sixth. Litwhiler, coming up with two away, started a five-run rally by banging his ninth homer over the left field fence. It was his third straight hit of the game.

Singles by Virgil Stallcup and Ray Lamanno followed Herm Wehmeier, the rookie Red hurler who broke his five-game losing streak with the victory, then singled to score Stallcup and send Boston's big Bill Voiselle to the showers.

Wyrostek provided the rest of the Red fireworks that inning. He sent his 12th homer into the right field bleachers to score three runs.

Fireman Harry Gumbert was called on to break up a Brave rally in the seventh after Wehmeier gave up a walk, a homer and another walk. Tom Holmes hit the Boston homer into the right field bleachers for two runs. Earl Torgeson, whose walk sent Gumbert into the game, scored the third run of the inning.

Kluszewski's homer came in the seventh after Hatton drew a walk from Al Lyons. Litwhiler then doubled and scored on Lamanno's single.

Gumbert walked Bill Salkeld in the eighth, and the Boston catcher scored on Holmes' single which followed a sacrifice and an infield out.

Tag Team Match Carded Thursday

Eddie Williams of Springfield, Missouri and Balk Estes of Elk City, Oklahoma, will pair off for a slam bang tag team affair with Harold "Irish" McGee of Cedar Rapids, Iowa and Jack Perry of London, England, at the Armory Thursday night, Promoter Les Fishbaugh announced today.

The four-man battle is scheduled for 90 minutes but with McGee's fancy first name finally divulged, he may be expected to vent his anger on his opponents and pin the pair in short order. Williams and Estes, however, are not ones to be cowed by a flaming temper.

In two 30-minute grapples to follow the main event, Williams will meet McGee and Estes will parry with Perry. A novice class preliminary will launch the program at 8:30 p. m.

Marion Driving club which then, as the Matinee club does now, sponsored the annual contests. Ribbons, however, did the meets over last longer than a week.

M'ANDREW NAMED AQUINAS COACH

Former St. Mary Athlete and Coach Goes to Columbus.

John R (Jack) McAndrew, former Marion St. Mary athlete and coach and son of Mr. and Mrs John P. McAndrew of 368 Olney avenue, was named head football and basketball coach of Columbus Aquinas High school today.

A graduate of St. Mary in 1939, McAndrew coached at his alma mater in 1941-42 before spending four years in the Coast Guard.

He has coached at Cincinnati Purcell High school since leaving the service.

After graduation from high school he attended St. Mary's college at Orchard Lake, Mich., and Ohio Northern university at Ada, O.

He is attending Ohio Northern this summer working on his masters degree.

McAndrew married the former Mary Jane Williams of Marion. They have a one-year-old daughter, Kathleen.

He succeeds John Stora at Aquinas.

Bruins Fail To Catch Zanesville After Spotting Them 7-Run Lead

By BILL DEEM

The effort of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs to fill Lincoln park last night for their benefit ball game for underprivileged children was successful but the Marion Cubs' attempt to catch up to Zanesville's Dodgers after spotting them a seven-run lead by the third inning was not and the estimated 2,100 fans attending went home disappointed by Ray Hathaway's charges, 13-9.

Or maybe they were disappointed in the Kristie-men, who had edged up to within one run of the Dodgers in the eighth inning, but left the tying run stranded at second when relief pitcher Bob Kaun whiffed two in a row to end the threat after having yielded a walk and two hits good for two runs.

He didn't give the Cubs much of a chance after that, allowing only Johnny Juhasz to reach first by virtue of a walk in the ninth and meanwhile the Dodgers had picked up three clinchers in their half of the ninth to win the first game of the series in comparatively easy fashion.

Virkstis Wins 3rd

The winning pitcher was Bob Virkstis, a lefty, who gave up 10 hits and seven runs before Manager Hathaway thumbed him out in the seventh with two on and none out. It was his third victory against two losses.

Southpaw Mike Kelly—and Umpire Sam Davis—was the loser. Kelly because the Dodgers took their lead while he was working and Davis because he was decommissioned when a pitched ball ricochetted into his arm, causing his removal from behind the plate and into the Marion City hospital, where he was treated and released. The blow left a lump about the size and hardness of a baseball on his left elbow. Dutch Heisler took his position behind the plate in the third inning.

The loss was Kelly's third against no wins. He was lifted in the third after Dave Myers' triple to right field had scored John Pulcini with Zanesville's fifth run. Reliever Jim Edgar let Myers and five more Dodgers cross the plate before getting the side out, but from then until the ninth, held them scoreless.

His support from the field was, as they say in the Air Corps, "raunchy."

Lemis Led Once

At one point in the game the locals led the invaders, who will be here for another game tonight starting at the regular 8 o'clock time, and that was in the first inning when Stan King hit his fourth homer, followed by Gene Bobzean's triple and Bill Bolduc's single. Bobzean hit four for five, two of his blows aided by the sunbaked infield which had ground balls hopping like Mexican jumping beans.

The Cubs continued to pepper away at Virstis and his successor, who just returned to the Dodgers yesterday from Johnstown of the Middle Atlantic league where he had been sent after winning four and losing eight for Zanesville last year.

A hit, wild pitch, and an error fashioned a run in the third and three scored in the fourth on two walks, Pete Neukirch's double and Bobzean's single. A walk, Dale Schnepf's single, and an error brought in a run in the seventh and then the Bruins started their eighth-inning rally that moved them up to within one run of Zanesville.

Stan King opened the inning with a walk, went to third on Bobzean's single, and scored when Bolduc grounded out. Kristie plated Bobzean with a single to right field, moving to second on the wild throw in and there died when Bohlender and Schnepf struck out.

MELVIN NELSON, utility catcher and outfielder with the Cubs last year watched the game last night. He is no longer in baseball. . . . Cubs scout Tony Lucadello was also at the game getting a line

NEW RELIEF PITCHER JOINS CUB STAFF

Glen J. (Swede) Benson, a six foot, two inch relief pitcher joined the Marion Cubs today.

Benson comes to Marion from Janesville, Wis. He is the property of the Hutchinson, Kansas, Cubs and was optioned to Cub Manager Frank Kristie's old club this spring.

UMPIRE SUSPENDED. Officials of the Washington baseball club say William McGowan, dean of American League umpires, was suspended by Will Harridge, president of the loop, for a series of incidents climaxed by the umpire's "cussing out" of Washington outfielder Ed Stewart during Monday night's Washington-Cleveland baseball game in Washington. (International).

U.S. OLYMPIC TEAM LANDS IN ENGLAND

SOUTHAMPTON, England, July 21 — The bulk of the United States Olympic team — 262 athletes — trooped down the gangplank of the S. S. America at 7 a. m. this morning and flocked high-spiritedly through the customs inspections.

An hour after leaving the ship they climbed into a fleet of buses and departed for London. Most of the men went to the Olympic Village, a converted RAF center at suburban Unbridge. Most of the girls are being put up at Southlands college in Wimbledon.

There was only one sour note. John Brooks of Green Farms, Conn., a Yale university rower who is alternate for two and four-oared shells, became ill with a high fever. He was put in an ambulance for the trip to St Mary's hospital in London. The nature of his illness awaited diagnosis.

STANDINGS SHIFT AS LEADERS TUMBLE

Springfield Drops to Fourth; Braves Move Up.

By The Associated Press

Standings of the Ohio-Indiana league bounced around last night after games which saw some of the leaders trounced by second division clubs.

Springfield's Giants, who led the league a few weeks ago and since then had crowded Muncie for first place, dropped into fourth spot after taking their ninth setback in a row from Richmond, which moved up into fifth. Richmond beat Springfield 10-7 last night, for their eighth straight win.

Portsmouth went into a second place tie with Zanesville by beating Muncie 5-4. Zanesville won 13-9 over Marion. Lima, in last place, beat Newark 9-8, and Newark was in third place pending the break in the tie for second between Portsmouth and Zanesville.

Louis Denies He'll Return to Ring

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 21 — Joe Louis insisted today he meant "positively" when he stepped down as heavyweight champion but the ring world buzzed excitedly over reports he may come out of moth balls to defend his title again in September.

Nat Fleischer, editor of Ring magazine, said in a copyrighted article the Brown Bomber would meet light heavyweight Gus Lesnevich in Yankee Stadium Sept. 22.

Fleischer added he came to this conclusion after an interview with the champion in which Louis told him:

"Maybe I should meet Lesnevich. I can beat him. I still will be able to retire unbeaten like Gene Tunney."

But in Detroit late yesterday, caught just as he was finishing a round of golf, Louis drove another spike into the comeback talk.

"I don't know where those rumors come from," he said "I've retired and that's all there is to it."

Shanty Town Runs String to 8; Company C Shuts Out Jaycees

Shanty Town's dreams of the diamonds continued to dominate Commercial league softball play last night as they won the first game of the second round of play, extending their streak to eight straight victories without a defeat by walloping Marion Metal Products, 8-2.

Company C, also a powerhouse in the first round which saw them take six wins in seven contests, continued the hot pace in the second by blasting the Jaycees, 13-8. Score of the Eagles-Post 162 game was not available and a game between W. & W. Provision and Farm Bureau was postponed until a later date.

The Shantytowners really slugged the ball last night, getting to Rumer and Walters of M. M. P. for 15 solid blows and scoring six runs in the big fifth inning on eight hits, the major blow being a round tripper by Harold Grubbs. He hit two for two, went hit three for four and Richardson connected twice in three trips. Jim Harris limited the men of Metal to three hits, struck out five and permitted no bases on balls. Marion Metal Products was held scoreless until the top of the seventh.

Of 26 batters to face Kunkle of Company C only three reached base on hits and five went down swinging. Miley for the Company homered and singled twice in five trips as Kunkle and Everly credited the shutout. Everly furnished relief in the sixth frame. Pitchers Baker and Spain of the Jaycees gave up 11 hits and walked 10 batters.

F.C.B. WINS 1ST GAME OF SEASON

First Church of Brethren's softball team Monday won its first game of the season in the Church loop as hard hitting and errors by the St. Mary No. 2 team, were combined to give F. C. B. a 7-6 decision over the Irish. The First Church of Brethren team won one game in the first round of play, but it came on a forfeit by Oakland.

St. Mary No. 1 continued their unbeatable play as McAndrew hit three for four in the 12-hit attack to capture their seventh verdict against one reverse by downing Trinity, 12-5.

In the third game in that loop, Greenwood upset the second place Epworth team, 7-5, each team counting eight safeties. Greenwood bunched five hits and took advantage of two walks to score five runs in the sixth. Brady hit a homer in the fourth for Greenwood. Epworth made its strongest bid in the sixth by getting three runs on three hits and a walk.

Forest Lawn won over Oakland by a 7-0 forfeit.

RICKEY GIVES $8,000 TO SOOTHE MONTREAL FANS

By The United Press

MONTREAL, July 21—Branch Rickey gave away $8,000 today in an attempt to soothe the hurt feeling of Montreal baseball fans.

The money was the Brooklyn Dodgers' share of the gate receipts for an exhibition game played here on July 12 against the Dodgers' Montreal farm team. The fans were angry because the Dodgers' Negro star Jackie Robinson played only one inning in that game.

Rickey, Dodger president, said the $8,000 would found "the Montreal Amateur Baseball Foundation" which would "serve to promote the interests of baseball in the city and district of Montreal."

BROWNS SIGN JAMES

By The United Press

CLEVELAND — Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns has announced the signing of Tommy James, former Ohio State university backfield star. James who played with the Detroit Lions last fall, will report to the Browns training camp at Bowling Green, O., next Monday.

Long Shots Come Home First in Six of Eight Races at Fairgrounds

Jeanie Lee Direct Pays $63.20 In Winning Second Race in Two Years

By GEORGE SCOTT

Long shots had a field day last night at the fairgrounds as six out of eight winners paid over $10 to the fortunate few of a crowd of approximately 3,000 harness racing fans.

In the fifth race Jimmy Wingfield went two up on his nearest rival in the winner race as he drove a favorite, Doctor Counsel, to victory against a strong field in a topsy-turvy 25 class pace for a mile

Jeanie Lee Direct, who had won but once in the last two years, romped home first in the second race 26 class trot of a mile to pay $63.20 the highest price of the meet so far. Driver Ed Williams put the four-year-old brown mare in the lead at the turn into the first mile and outlasted a challenge by Milt Anderson's Nancy K. Jeanie Lee Direct paid just 40 cents less than the daily double.

Then it was Rodney Bidwell's turn to shock the crowd. Driving Jonesie Jones, he had to overcome a 15-length lead to cross the wire ahead of Scott's Welch driving Dezzella owned by R E Earl and G A Wright of Marion. Before the contest Jonesie Jones had won but twice in his last 36 starts. He paid $22.40

Drove in Another

Bidwell proved he knows how to bring home long-shots as he drove Trueland to a first in the next race. The bay gelding paid $32 in his winning of the three-year-old trot of a mile in 2 13 1 5. By the victory, Bidwell became the night's only double winner. Before last night the best he had come in was third.

The race that registered loudest on the scream-o-meter was the seventh. The 23 class pace for a mile was a real thriller. Coming into the home stretch five horses on a line thundered toward the finish wire. After Lucy Braden was announced as the winner some fans booed the report. It was that close. "What a horse race!" Could be heard everywhere and the murmuring of the fans continued until the horses paraded to the post for the next contest.

Five of the eight pacers in the fifth race had won at least once on the Marion track this year and Bob E. Vo and the winner Doctor Counsel had won twice. After Bob E. Vo took the lead at the start of the mile run, Sun Shine Direct streaked to the top in the first backstretch. He couldn't keep up the pace and Bob E. Vo went to the front again. On the final turn Jimmy Wingfield told Doctor Counsel to go and the three-year-old black colt went, winning by five lengths.

Winning drivers in the meeting to date stand Wingfield nine, Welch seven, Dispanette six, Shilling, Huber Jr., Brickethoff and Mason five and Bus Edwards and Cardinal four.

Dignity showed that she hadn't been hurt by last Thursday's three-sulky collision when she won the eighth and last race of the evening, a mile 18 class pace in 2.09. The time was the fastest of the night's racing. Ray Baker drove the six-year-old black mare

Paige Forbidden To Use His "Hesitation Pitch"

Special to The Star

WASHINGTON July 21—Lou Boudreau, manager of the Cleveland Indians, said today that Negro pitcher Satchel Paige has been forbidden by the American league to throw his favorite "hesitation pitch."

The Washington Senators squawked to League President Will Harridge after facing Paige's tricky delivery in a night game on Monday. Boudreau said he was notified by telephone yesterday that Harridge declared the pitch illegal.

The deliver uses a "hitch", or momentary pause, which throws batters off their timing. The Senators complained that it constituted a balk with men on base.

"Tag Team Grappling Thursday"

Promotor Fishbaugh has signed up a tag team to be the feature attraction on the weekly grapple card at the Marion Armory Thursday night.

Irish McGee and Jack Terry will again team up together but this time they will have a tougher combination to face in the team of Eddie Williams and Bait Estes, two of just about the fastest matmen around these parts. The main event will be for the best two out of three falls with a ninety-minute limit. There will be two thirty-minute matches before the tag team match in which Eddie Williams will try to even things with Irish McGee and Bait Estes will try to take the measurement of Jack Terry. A prelim starts the show at 8:30. Prices 50-75-1.00. Call Marbert & Lewis for seats.—Adv.

BREWERS TAKE OVER ASSOCIATION LEAD

By The Associated Press

For the first time since early in the season, Indianapolis had been pushed out of the lead in the hot American Association pennant drive today.

Milwaukee succeeded in regaining the top spot after the Tribe snatched it away from the Brewers near the outset of the campaign. The Brewers engineered a nine-run fourth inning last night to wallop the Indians 13-3 and sweep the crucial two-game set to move in the front with a ½ game margin.

The big blast was fashioned on an error, two walks, four singles, four doubles and a homer by Marv Rickert—his 19th of the season—to give Jim Bagby his worst shelling.

Third place Columbus — 6½ games out of first—collected 18 blows to trounce St. Paul 13-1 for an even break in the four-game set. The Red Birds backed Kurt Krieger's five hitter with seven runs in the second inning, batting around with six hits to knock out Jim Romano.

Rain washed out Louisville's game at Minneapolis in the third with the Colonels leading 3-0. Toledo's scheduled doubleheader at Kansas City also was rained out.

ATOMIC BOMB SETS SEASON PACING RECORD

By The Associated Press

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., July 21 — A season record for three-year-old pacers was set by Atomic Bomb last night in winning the $3,000 Sagamore pace in 2:02 3/5 at Saratoga Raceway.

Atomic Bomb, owned by W. N. Reynolds of Winston Salem, N. C., and driven by Del Miller, finished two lengths ahead of the favored Knight Dream in the Grand Circuit feature. Navy Hal was third.

Al Umpire Suspended After Row with Nats

WASHINGTON, July 21—Umpire Bill McGowan was on the suspended list today while American league officials investigated his conduct in the Monday night game between Cleveland and Washington.

McGowan's suspension, announced in Chicago yesterday by League President Will Harridge, followed a vigorous complaint by Joe Kuhel, manager of the Senators.

Kuhel claimed the umpire had thrown a baseball at outfielder Ed Stewart and had cursed him, and that he also had heaved a strikes-and-balls indicator at pitcher Rae Scarborough.

Said McGowan not so.

Before the game was over Kuhel had been bounced from the park for the first time in his 18 years in the majors and a side argument had developed between Washington coach Sam West and umpire Cal Hubbard over whether Cleveland's ancient relief hurler, Satchel Paige, had balked with men on first and third.

West quoted Hubbard as saying Paige had balked, all right, but he, Hubbard, wouldn't call it because "that isn't my job." A balk would have added one Washington run in the game which Cleveland eventually won in extra innings.

McGowan is 43 and has 24 years as an American league umpire.

One more ballplayer is being quoted on the Monday night dispute. That's Cleveland's Manager Lou Boudreau. He said "Me? I didn't say anything. We won."

BERLIN

Berlin, hinted through their controlled press that they may offer electric power for the entire city, including the Soviet blockaded western sectors.

The British-controlled newspaper Telegraf said German railway officials have received orders to prepare detailed plans of rail lines running to the western borders of the Russian occupation zone.

The British-licensed German News Agency said the closed Helmstedt line to Berlin was in good shape and needed no repairs as the Russians have claimed. The agency said it received its information from rail officials in the Soviet Union.

German press reports also said the Russians are strengthening border barricades on the frontiers with the American occupation zone to reduce German interzonal travel.

Ready To Supply Food, Say Russians

By International News Service

BERLIN, July 21—The Soviet-licensed German press asserted today food in plenty would be available if the western allies left Berlin.

The Russian-controlled organs slanted their propaganda to a line aimed at convincing German residents of the western sectors that coal and raw materials as well would be available for immediate distribution on the departure of the allies.

After intimating that the allied air bridge has failed, the newspapers reflected a shift from previous bellicosity to emphasis on the dangers of any new conflict.

Henry Wallace

Senator Taylor

Rexford G. Tugwell

HENRY WALLACE PARTY CONVENING — Most prognosticators set the new Progressive party's probable vote next fall at between 5,000,000 and 8,000,000 votes as adherents prepare to rally at Philadelphia for their first convention July 23-25. Henry Wallace will be nominated for president and Idaho's Senator Glen H Taylor elected as a Democrat, for vice president. Former Roosevelt brain truster Rexford Guy Tugwell, a professor at the University of Chicago, heads platform committee.

PROTEST LODGED IN FATAL STONING Sharp representations have been made to the Egyptian government through the U S diplomatic corps over stoning to death in Cairo of Stephen Haas, 53, Philadelphia Pa., real estate man there with his wife as tourists. Mrs Haas also attacked was head of the Philadelphia women's division of the treasury's war finance committee during bond drives. (International Soundphoto)

Conscription Urged Upon Australians

By The United Press

CANBERRA — Conscription in Australia to help Britain the empire and the United States is strongly advocated by Maj Gen Clyde P Steel, engineer-in-chief of the Australian military forces from 1942 to 1946.

"Australia was very lucky in the last war," he said, "in having United States' aid in saving this country but it would be stupid if we merely relied on having an ally to save us the second time."

Steele added that he hoped an adequate professional army would be made available to share occupation responsibilities throughout Europe.

TRAFFIC VIOLATOR FINED

GALION, July 21 — Avery Crawford, whose auto struck a parked car last Friday evening, has been fined $25 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended on condition that he refrain from driving.

Papaya "Milking" Gives Farmer Profit

By The United Press

MERCEDES, Tex.—C P Melton can milk papayas as well as cows.

Melton reports that a 9-acre plot of papaya, a tropical fruit, has yielded gallons of milk which is dehydrated into paper an expensive chemical.

Milking is accomplished simply by running a pointed stick up and down on the skin of the fruit. Little droplets of white "milk" quickly run down the marks.

Milking in no way harms the fruit itself which later can be sold as fresh fruit or processed into papaya jam and jelly.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

ERNEST HEMINGWAY, born July 21, 1898, has had close links with war and other violence, both in his life and works. After a brief tour as cub reporter he entered World War I with the Italian army. Later he was injured bull fighting in Spain. He observed and wrote about the Spanish Civil War. His novels and books have dealt with scenes he knew and have championed the revolt of the post-World War I generation. Among his novels are "Farewell To Arms" and "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

REUNIONS

SLOAT

Families of the late William and Frank Sloat held their thirteenth annual reunion Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis (Helen) on Henry street. A basket dinner was served at noon to approximately 35 persons present and the afternoon was spent socially with games, contests and a program. Miss Helen Sloat of Morral is secretary of the group.
